

A Lot on Central Avenue,
in Block 11, for $3300,
for a few days
E. C. HOLLIDAY,
Hotel St. Louis Bldg.

DULUTH EVENING HERALD.

VOL. 7; NO. 257.

PANTON & WATSON

GLASS BLOCK STORE.

116, 118 and 120 West Superior St., DULUTH, MINN.

ONLY 2 DAYS MORE

And our Gigantic Clearance Sale will be at an end.

MAKE HAY WHILE THE SUN SHINES

And come to the Glass Block Store and supply your wants while we are sacrificing prices previous to inventory

Friday AND Saturday

POSITIVELY THE LAST TWO DAYS.

The following is simply a sample of the thousands of bargains that will be given. Panton & Watson are the only genuine bargain-givers in Duluth. We advertise just what we mean and mean just what we say.

EVERYBODY WELCOME.

LADIES, READ THIS!

$1.95 Self-Pouring Tea and Coffee Pots. $1.95

$1.95 each, former price $5.50 and $6.50 each. We are determined not to take them in stock and will sacrifice them at $1.95 each to close them out. They are self-pouring and made of Silverite and cost at wholesale $5.50 and $6.50 less 20 per cent. You can't buy a common china one for that price. COME EARLY FOR YOU WANT ONE FOR $1.95.

$10--SEAL CAPS--$10.

Any Gent's or Ladies' Real Seal Cap we have in stock, worth $12.50 to $16.50, for $10 each.

15cts Each CHILDREN'S UNDERWEAR. 15cts Each

One lot of Children's Merino Underwear, worth 30c, offered for half price, 15 cents each.

LADIES' SCARLET UNDERWEAR.

75c for your pick of our Ladies' Scarlet Underwear, formerly sold for $1.25

SILVER HARE MUFFS.

One lot of Silver Hare Muffs, well made and cheap at $1.50. Take them for 75c each. Our $8, $9 and $10 genuine

BEAVER MUFFS, PICK $5.

Our Lynx Back and Lynx Belly Muffs, worth $5.95 and $6.95, now $4.

AN EYE-OPENER!

15c EACH. REGULAR PRICE, 25c EACH.

We have 200 dozen BATH TOWELS, size 44x23 inches. We have sold 100 dozen since this sale began at 25c. To create a little excitement we make them 15c each. Come and see this bargain.

GENTS' - UNLAUNDRIED - SHIRTS

29c EACH, JUST THINK OF IT, ONLY 29c EACH.

For Gents' Unlaundried Shirts, with Genuine Linen Bosoms and Cuffs, and sold everywhere for 50c. Our price 29c each.

GENTS' WOOL UNDERWEAR.

Lot 1--For price $1.75 each, now $1.

Lot 2--Former price $1.25 each, now 25c.

Don't fail to ask to see these two Bargains.

WARM WEATHER IN JANUARY

MEANS A TERRIFIC LOSS TO US.

Ladies don't want to buy CLARKS, but we want to sell and to induce our patrons to buy we will offer the following EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS:

Twenty-seven Plush Cloaks, quilted Satin lining, real Seal ornaments, 38 inches long--never been used by us or any other house, for less than $25--out price nearly half price, namely $15. Positively no deposit taken, all cash or no sale at price, $15.

$15 Cloth Newmarkets Reduced to $7.50.
$5.50 Cloth Newmarkets Reduced to $3.
$21 Beaver Newmarkets Reduced to $15.00.

LADIES' ALASKAS.

25 case Ladies Fleece Lined Alaskas, sold by all dealers for 65 and 75c. Take them while they last for 35c per pair.

SEE OUR LADIES' COMMON SENSE SHOE.

For $2.00, high-priced houses ask you $3.75 for one no better.

GLOVES FOR LADIES AND MISSES AT TERRIBLE LOW PRICES!

CANDIES WILL BE SOLD BY SATURDAY NIGHT.

Marshmallows worth 60c for 10c per pound.
Chocolates worth 30c for 15c per pound.

REMEMBER

SATURDAY IS POSITIVELY THE LAST DAY!

PANTON & WATSON.

LAST EDITION.

FUN AT THE CAPITOL.

How Gentlemen Filibusters Act When They Feel That Way.

The Pleasant Little Time of Yesterday Continued.

A Lively Tilt Between Springer and the Speaker; Shorts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The galleries of the house were crowded to their utmost capacity long before noon today by spectators anticipating the resumption of the contest of yesterday. Nor were they disappointed, for as the clerk read the Journal in his usual manner, omitting the detail vote by yeas and nays on the question of consideration against the contested election case, Mr. Breckenridge of Kentucky rose and demanded a recess to consider the speaker's motion to adjourn. Mr. Springer, of Illinois, responded that it was too late to do this. This having been completed, Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the reading of the names of those not voting and the speech be adjourned. The speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, then moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the clerk read the Journal again, omitting the name of the speaker.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. McKinley of Ohio moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Standards of the House, and the speaker declined this to be done.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, moved an adjournment, and the speaker declined this to be done.

A lot on Central Avenue,
in Block 11, for $3300,
for a few days
E. C. HOLLIDAY,
Hotel St. Louis Bldg.

DULUTH EVENING HERALD.

VOL. 7; NO. 257.

PANTON & WATSON
GLASS BLOCK STORE.

116, 118 and 120 West Superior St., DULUTH, MINN.

ONLY 2 DAYS MORE

And Our Gigantic Clearance Sale will be at an end.

MAKE HAY WHILE THE SUN SHINES
And come to the Glass Block Store and supply your wants while we are saving.
facing prices previous to inventory

Friday AND Saturday

POSITIVELY THE LAST TWO DAYS,

The following is simply a sample of the thousands of bargains that will be given. Panton & Watson are the only genuine bargain-givers in Duluth. We advertise just what we mean and mean just what we say.

EVERYBODY WELCOME.

LADIES, READ THIS!

$1.95 Self-Pouring Tea and Coffee Pots. $1.95

$1.95 each, former price $5.50 and $6.50 each. We are determined not to take them into stock and will sacrifice them at $1.95 each to close them out. They are self-pouring and made of Silverette and cost at wholesale $5.50 and $6.50, less 20 per cent. You can't buy a common china one for that price. COME EARLY if you want one for $1.95.

$10--SEAL CAPS--$10.

Any Gent's or Ladies' Real Seal Cap we have in stock, worth $12.50 to $16.50, for $10 each.

15cts Each CHILDREN'S UNDERWEAR. 15cts Each

One lot of Children's Merino Underwear, worth 30c, offered for half price, 15 cents each.

LADIES' SCARLET UNDERWEAR.

75c for your pick of our Ladies' Scarlet Underwear, formerly sold for $1.25

SILVER HARE MUFFS.

One lot of Silver Hare Muffs, well made and cheap at $1.50. Take them for 75c each. Our $8, $9 and $10 genuine

BEAVER MUFFS, PICK $5.

Our Lynx Back and Lynx Belly Muffs, worth $3.50 and $3.50, now $4.

AN EYE-OPENER!

15c EACH. REGULAR PRICE, 25c EACH.

We have 200 dozen BATH TOWELS, size 44x23 inches. We have sold 100 dozen since this sale began at 25c. To create a little excitement we make them 15c each. Come and see this bargain.

GENTS' - UNLAUNDRYED - SHIRTS

29c EACH, JUST THINK OF IT, ONLY 29c EACH.

For Gents' Unlaundried Shirts, with Genuine Linen Bosom and Cuffs, worth $1 and sold everywhere for 50c. Our price 29c each.

GENTS' WOOL UNDERWEAR.

Lot 1—For price $1.75 each, now $1.

Lot 2—Former price $1.25 each, now 50c.

Don't fail to ask to see these two Bargains.

WARM WEATHER IN JANUARY

MEANS A TERRIFIC LOSS TO US.

Ladies don't want to buy CI OAKS, but we want to sell and to induce you to buy we will offer the following EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS:

The following Plush Cloaks, quilted Satin lining, real Seal ornaments, 38 inches long—never been sold by us or any other house for less than $25—cut price nearly half price, namely $15. Positively no deposit taken, all cash or no sale at this price, $15.

85c Cloth Newmarkets Reduced to 75c.

85c Cloth Newmarkets Reduced to 85c.

21 Beaver Newmarkets Reduced to 150.

LADIES' ALASKAS.

25c case Ladies Fleece Lined Alaskas, sold by all dealers for 65 and 75c. Take them while they last for 35c per pair.

SEE OUR LADIES' COMMON SENSE SHOE.

For $2.90, high-priced houses ask you $3.75 for one no better.

GLOVES FOR LADIES AND MISSES AT TERRIBLE LOW PRICES!

CANDIES WILL BE SOLD BY SATURDAY NIGHT.

Marshmallows worth 60c for 10c per pound. Chocolates worth 30c for 15c per pound.

REMEMBER

SATURDAY IS POSITIVELY THE LAST DAY

PANTON & WATSON.

LAST EDITION.

MORE OF THE SAME.

The Democratic Tactics in Washington are Renewed Today.

Speaker Reed Doesn't Propose to Stand any More Delay.

Idaho's Admission; Retire Army Officers; Other News.

ENDORSE THE MANAGEMENT.

Examiner Kenyon Condones the Former Management of the American.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 31.—[Special.]

State Examiner Kenyon is today examining the condition of the American Building & Loan association. It is believed that he will condemn the corporation and endorse the present management.

A GREAT DRUG TRADE.

The Greatest Ever Known During one Month.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—No such harvest has ever been known by the drug trade as that arising from the present epidemic of influenza and pneumonia. The business in full tilt that was ordered. The reading was not completed until 12:50, and immediately Mr. McKinley moved that the journal be approved and demanded that it be published. Mr. Springer interposed a motion to adjourn, saying that he did so to enable the committee on rules to bring in a code. The speaker ruled that he was in order speaking on a motion to adjourn.

Mr. Springer.—There are no rules to permit adjournment.

The speaker.—There are rules for the house, which govern parliamentary assemblies, and those rules distinctly declare that a motion to adjourn is not debatable, of which the gentleman is perfectly aware.

Hundreds of retail druggists, too, who were recently in full swing, have doubled their business increased 400 or 500 per cent, and a continuation of the spell would soon place them in a position to compete with the drug houses.

The speaker declared the demand for the previous question carried, yes, 120, yeas, and 10 nays. The speaker of the democratic party called for a vote on the previous question, and the question is an approval of the Journal. Mr. Bynum of Indiana, moved to adjourn, but the speaker declined to rule him in, and again put the motion on approval of the journal.

Another storm swept over the house, when the speaker protested from Mr. Bynum, in which he vigorously attacked the speaker, calling for cheer after cheer from the democrats.

Then the speaker refused to entertain Mr. Springer's motion, and said that he would not recognize any ordinary parliamentary motions that were moved with a view to obstructing the business of the house.

Mr. McKinley was recognized to move to table the appeal. Mr. Springer protested against the entire democratic side. A tremendous uproar ensued. Mr. Perkins of Kansas, taunted the democrats, and the delegates to their congregations from the pulpit, but here again it was urged to admit the members of the democratic party to the assembly of the extraordinary amount of sickness abroad it would be unfair to burden their afflicted flocks with any additional care.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

Every conceivable scheme is being resorted to by pierre boomers to capture the townsite of fort pierre and even attempting to get the railroad to have a station there.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his seat amid the jeers of the republican cause.

The speaker directed the roll to be called, and after a short debate, voted to do so. Mr. Springer meanwhile denouncing the speaker's action and continuing to shout his remonstrance. Before the clerk had gotten through the "ps" Springer sank back exhausted into his

EVENING HERALD.

ELIOT LORD, Publisher.

PRICE, THREE CENTS—Subscription Rates.
Daily, by mail, per three months.....$7.00
Daily, by mail, per month.....$2.75
Daily, by carrier, per week.....18

Entered at the Washington office, N. W., where the paper is kept on file and where The Herald Correspondent will welcome visitors from the Northwest.

IN TO STAY.

The republican convention candidate is in stay. He has challenged specific accusations of improper influence in shaping the course of the convention thus far without rejoinder, and as the nominee-elect of the republican party in convention assembled he will be the next mayor of Duluth if the republicans of this city rally behind him. If not let them look to their own consciences for justification, if there is any. A business man of high executive qualities, the cashier and director of one of the leading banks of the city, the late chairman of the city republican committee and justly commended to the party by his services to the party cause in this city and state, he appeals fairly and fitly for the party support at this juncture and on the head of the party not on his will rest the responsibility of his defeat if defeated shall come.

But who shall say that defeat is to come? We admit the existence of present disaffection and the fact of open and secret desertions, but there are days yet to come before the decisive verdict at the polls, and there is hope for the last that disaffected may yet come to their sober reason, and rally to bind the party candidates for the sake of the party if not for its own sake. What now is there that chiefly impels his election? We regret to name it for the credit of the city and its abiding reputation, a city of law and order. It is notoriously the action taken by the candidate, as a private individual, and lover of the cause of law and order in city in moving a subscription for the benefit of the police who at the peril of their lives, and in discharge of their sworn duty, protected the workmen in the streets last summer.

Think of it!

In the days to come what incentive will Duluth offer to any public-spirited and law-abiding citizen to run the risk of enlisting in defense of law and order or in support of its sworn defenders if the present republican candidate for mayor is slaughtered at the polls for his action in the matter of the subscription? We have no word to say in harshness against the ostensible republican who before the party convention, without waiting the judgment of his party announced himself as an independent candidate for the mayoralty of the city. It is for his fellow citizens to judge of his personal qualifications, his declared independence, and his claims for support by loyal republicans. But we will unhesitatingly point out, that a large portion of the support upon which he now confidently relies comes from that element which with blind unreason is denouncing the republican party candidate for his public spirited and zealous action in recognition of the peril and the service of the police last summer. Can you, professed church members, can you, true friends of law and order, can you, loyal republican citizens, resolve to range yourselves under such a standard and contribute to the success of such an element and such a cause? Think of it soberly! Inquire into it thoroughly, and then cast your votes against the candidate of your party, for a bold republican and the representative of such an element, if you think fit. If Mr. Hall is up for sacrifice so be it! But let us be clearly known why and for what the sacrifice is made.

The search for a process by which aluminum can be made so cheaply that it can be freely used to alloy other metals and in its clear state, is everywhere being pressed steadily by chemists and others. Recently it was announced from Pittsburgh that an aluminum company had so cheapened the reducing process that the precious metal can now be sold in ingots, in 1000-pound lots, at $2 per pound. This is a cut of 50 per cent on the former price, $4 per pound, and a surprising reduction as compared with the cost of aluminum a year or two ago, when the price was as high as $3 a pound. There is good reason to hope that before long somebody will discover a process of securing aluminum that will so reduce the price that the metal may be generally and freely used in the arts and sciences. Aluminum exists in clay, but thus far nobody has discovered a cheap process of taking it from the earth. The best results of the efforts of chemists has resulted from work upon the fluoride of aluminum and sodium which is found in the granite of West Greenland. But some of these days some patient toil will discover a process of successfully treating clay, and then there will be another millionaire, and aluminum will come into general use. It is stated by experts that the red clay of the region about Duluth contains, in a marked degree, the new and valued metal, and the time may not be far distant when it will be produced here.

The Herald presents in another column today a comprehensive and condensed summary of the work of the Minnesota Chippewa commission, and of the steps necessary to the securing of the rich farm and agricultural lands that will in a few days, by act of the President, be prepared for public purchase and occupation. This opening of nearly 5,000,000 acres of land in northern Minnesota. All of it of great wealth, all of it tributary to Duluth "through the center of each of which the Duluth & Winnipeg road is pointing," is a matter of much wider import than our people realize or believe. The Herald acknowledges its debt for valuable information furnished to Hon. Henry M. Rice, the chairman of the Chippewa commission, who has been an earnest worker for the success of this project and who with his colleagues, Messrs. Whiting and Marti, has been no small factor in the upbuilding of the Northwest.

SEEN AND HEARD.

Americans do not generally understand English scheme of primogeniture, or seniority by birth. In the English family the eldest son is a "soft snap," as a street Arab would say. He is potted the best of everything, is educated at the best school, and is the favorite of his father and the wife, and has a good time generally. The youngest son has a hard row to hoe, unless his father is rich. He is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "bossed" about by the rest of the family and nobody thinks he has his destiny or right. I saw a good example of this a short time ago in The Spalding lobby. Two young Englishmen, sons of Chippewa commissioners, left their parents at the hotel and went to town. While they were always there on the street and were as brotherly as could be, yet it was amusing to see the deference with which the younger treated his elder. The younger son is rich, he is "boss

HOW TO GET MORE PINE.

A Condensed Revenue of the Chippewa Allotment Law of 1889.

How the Vast Pine Forests Are to be Obtained by Purchase.

May be Opened by the President's Approval in a Few Days.

It is expected that in a few weeks, possibly less than that, the Minnesota Chippewa reservations will be thrown open to public entry by the action of the president in the report of the Minnesota Chippewa commission, who were working in this section a good share of last summer. In answer to numerous inquiries from land seekers and others interested in the opening of these great reserves which are nearly all tributary to Duluth, and on which no more standing pine timber than in any part of the United States east of the Rocky mountains. The Herald has taken pains to have as much as possible of the conditions of purchase, the area and value of these lands, and their bearing on Duluth and presents below the result of its investigations, all of which are derived from official sources and are correct.

The allotment and sale of the lands is under two acts of congress, approved Feb. 8, 1887, and Jan. 14, 1889, the latter creating the commission and defining the mode of sale. The Red Lake reservation contains more acres than does the state of Connecticut. The Indians ceded probably 3,000,000 acres to the government; the balance was reserved, out of which they can take all they want.

Sporting Notes.

Harry Schaffer, the old third baseman for the White Earth Indians ceded four townships, the balance is retained, out of which such Indians as are now there and are to remain there will take allotments. After the allotments in these two reservations shall have been made, the secretary of the interior is authorized to purchase what may remain. The White Earth Indians ceded four townships and Lake and Winnebagoishish Indians cede all their reservations, but such Indians as see fit to remain will receive allotments before the balance of the land is disposed of, which allotments must be made upon other than pine lands, which will be sold under the provisions of the act of 1880. The White Oak Point, Mille Lacs, Grand Portage, Bear Porte and Fond du Lac reservations were ceded under same conditions.

The foregoing reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value. The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country. The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment. The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The act of 1880, "for the relief and civilization of Chippewa Indians in Minnesota," makes it the duty of the president to appoint three commissioners to treat with the different bands for the cession of their lands, except the reservations of White Earth and Red Lake, where part was to be reserved. These commissioners were also to take a census of each band, and if none had been made, to move all Indians, not excepted, to White Earth, and then to allot them lands in severalty. The Indians did not do early in the coming spring. But any Indians may take, if they wish, their allotments on the reserves where they have been.

As soon as the president approves the work of the commission, the land office shall survey the ceded reserves, and shall appoint a number of estimators and appraisers who will estimate the pine on the reserves in 40 acre tracts. These, together with what agricultural lands are to be appraised by commissioners, will be sold. The valuation of pine lands shall not be less than $3 per 1,000 feet of stumpage and shall be as much more as the land may be worth. The price of general lands shall be listed at $1.25 per acre.

After this is done, advertisements of sale shall be inserted in daily papers of Duluth, St. Paul, Minneapolis, and Crookston, Minn., Chicago, Milwaukee, Detroit, and Philadelphia, and Westport, Pa. The sale will be by public auction for care in the government land offices, and each tract is located and no tract of forty acres shall be sold for less than appraised value. The money derived from this sale will be turned over to the treasury as a permanent Indian fund, and will bear interest at 5 per cent. For fifty years the annual interest shall be spent as follows: One-half to be paid in cash to headmen of families, one-half to be paid to the act; one-quarter shall be paid to all other Indians in the act; one-quarter shall be spent by government for free schools. At the end of the time the entire fund shall be devoted for the benefit of the Indians.

In connection with the above, the government official to whom The Herald is indebted to the facts, writes: "You can see from the map with the extension of the Duluth & Winnebagoishish vast supplies for that region will be furnished from Duluth. Whether it will not make the head of the lake here after the great lumber mart of the Northwest you can determine."

Gage, Holland & Hayden, successors to Gage, Holland, Hayden & Co., will hereafter carry on a wholesale business in this city, dealing in butter, eggs and confectionaries, which will be marketed under the Merchants hotel store No. 15 Michigan street. All accounts owing to the firm of Gage, Holland, Hayden & Co. will be paid to Gage, Holland, Hayden & Hayden, who are members of the 4th class of Gage, Holland, Hayden & Co.

Unitarian literature furnished free upon application at Room D, Hunter block.

The Herald bindery has the best facilities Duluth for making blank books.

AN EXCELLENT POSITION.

Duluth and All Lake Superior Cities Have Great Advantage. The Marquette Journal hits the exact center of the bullseye when it talks as follows:

"Chicago has been the great lumber mart of the country. Of late years the tendency has been to divide the lumber trade and place it nearer the center of production. As the Northern peninsula of Michigan has declined so rapidly, so has Chicago's declined. Prominent among the factors that has caused this shifting of trade and helped place the North in a position of independence is the Duluth & South Shore & Manitoba railroad. In this connection the following from the last issue of The Northwestern Lumberman of Chicago, will be of interest:

"A commission dealer of this city, who has about 5,000,000 feet of lumber at Duluth to dispose of, is figuring to send it to the East Coast. He says he can forward it by rail over the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic at a rate five cents above that from this city.

"They say, the South Shore lines have been forced to take a reduction for five cents per thousand more than the rate from Chicago to the seaboard.

This difference is much less than the water and short-line rail transportation, the position not only of Duluth but of all other Lake Superior cities seems excellent one.

AN INDIANA FIGHT.

Police Appear Conveniently at the Close-General Sporting Affairs.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 31.—Jimmy Corrigan, Chicago, and Pauline Carroll, heavy weight, fought George Corrigan of this city last night near here. They fought fifteen rounds when Corrigan was knocked down, and the police declared the fight was off. A referee declared the winner a draw. Six police gloves were used. Both men were pretty badly punished and rather need to be treated before they get up again.

THEIR KEPT IT VERY QUIET,

But the Truth Was Written. An Almost Minnesota Escape.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 31.—Jimmy Corrigan, Chicago, and Pauline Carroll, heavy weight, fought George Corrigan of this city last night near here. They fought fifteen rounds when Corrigan was knocked down, and the police declared the fight was off. A referee declared the winner a draw. Six police gloves were used. Both men were pretty badly punished and rather need to be treated before they get up again.

SPORTING NOTES.

Harry Schaffer, the old third baseman for the White Earth Indians ceded four townships, the balance is retained, out of which such Indians as are now there and are to remain there will take allotments.

After the allotments in these two reservations shall have been made, the secretary of the interior is authorized to purchase what may remain.

The White Earth Indians ceded four townships and Lake and Winnebagoishish Indians cede all their reservations, but such Indians as see fit to remain will receive allotments before the balance of the land is disposed of, which allotments must be made upon other than pine lands, which will be sold under the provisions of the act of 1880.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, and has passed from his office through the interior department, and for some days has been in the hands of the president, who when approved becomes a law.

The foregoings reservations contain 4,743,941 acres, and the Indians will have 3,000,000 acres. The reservations contain the largest pine forests in this country this side of the Rocky mountains, and are of immense value.

The Duluth & White Earth is practical pointing through the center of the country.

The conclusion of the negotiations consisted in more than two thirds of the Indians agreeing to accept the provisions of the act of Jan. 14, 1889, without alteration or amendment.

The proceedings of the commissioners and the Indians, however, together with the report of the commissioners, were sent to the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs

EVENING HERALD.

ELIOT LORD, Publisher.

PRICE, THREE CENTS—Subscription Rates:
Daily, by mail, per year.....$7.00
Daily, by mail, per three months.....2.00
Daily, by mail, in the city.....75
Daily, by carrier, per week.....18

Entered at the postoffice at Duluth, Minn., as second-class mail matter.

The Washington office of The Herald is at 123 New York Avenue, N. W., where the paper can be had. The Herald's correspondents will welcome visitors from the Northwest.

IN DIRECT CONFLICT.

The city republican committee, whose address to the republicans and citizens of Duluth appears in another column, has formally demanded the withdrawal of the republican convention candidate for mayor. Upon his final refusal to withdraw after reconsidering his first consent, the committee, in its own words, has "taken the authority to remove him. The committee judges that its course is in the best interest of the republican party and the citizens of Duluth. Mr. Hall, on the other hand, takes the ground that the committee is wholly transcending its province and authority in making such a call upon him, and flatly defies it. His original consent to withdraw was, as he says, given hastily and under the instant pressure of a general demand of the committee. Upon mature consideration he became convinced that the demand involved a sacrifice which he had no right in self-respect to make, upon any such requisition. He was the candidate elect of the convention. He had accepted the election. He had resolved to stand for the suffrages of the republican voters of Duluth. He had appealed for their votes and called for the production of any specific charters against him, unfitting him for the office of mayor in the judgment of sober, thinking, honest men. To resign in the face of such a call, was in his judgment, practically equivalent to a confession of unfitness, of avowed unworthiness of the confidence and support of his fellow citizens for public office. Such an admission was nothing more or less than political and personal ruin, and with no advantage to the party which was apparent to him. Upon this ground, maintaining his own consciousness and the propriety of his course as a candidate, unshaken, he has refused to withdraw or to accept the decision of the committee removing him, and will hold fast to the end, abiding the issue of the contest, whatever it may be.

We have no hesitation in saying that the city republican committee has no legal right to "remove" the candidate-elect of the regular republican convention. Until Mr. Hall withdraws, he is unquestionably the standing candidate of the republican party in convention assembled. We do not presume to question the conscientious integrity of the course of the committee. Their conclusion was reached, too, after full deliberation. But we cannot presume either to urge the republican candidate, in the absence of unfounded charges, which he has had full opportunity to meet, to hand in his resignation at the cost to him, in his judgment, of his self-respect and the respect of the community in which he lives.

Under the circumstances, the republican convention candidate, both personally and politically, is unquestionably entitled to the most careful and considerate verdict of the voting republicans to whom he unflinchingly appeals. It is moreover notorious that the chief hand in guiding the opposition to him of men of his own descent, and the hand which would willingly use him as a political chopping block, is stretching out already for the senatorial nomination next fall and is anxious to brush a reported rival leader out of the way completely, and live, the undisputed boss of West End politics. Hence this shout against the republican candidate of moving for the fund in the benefit of the police, though it is carefully withheld from the public notice that the present independent candidate, Mr. J. Davis, is a subscriber to the same police testimonial fund as appears explicitly in the list published in The Herald of July 10, 1889, and on the books of the treasurer of the fund, T. W. Hooper. This is good for Mr. Davis but rather bad apparently for his present cause.

It is said that about 72,000 freight cars were built in the United States in 1889, at an approximate cost of $36,000,000. The number built in 1890 will, it is estimated, be over 120,000. As every freight car consumes about six tons of iron, besides a good deal of lumber, it will be seen that the iron trade will have no little stimulus from this source alone.

Among the industries which promise to make business for the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic road during the summer is the square timber trade. A firm at Quebec has made contracts along the line of the road for large quantities of square timber for the foreign trade. Most of this timber goes to Europe and is sawed into deals. It is largely rock maple, elm and the cream of other hard woods suitable for the manufacture of furniture. In past years several cargoes of pine deals have been shipped by water direct from the vicinity of Duluth to Liverpool.

Despite the protests and efforts of boomers, the story of the condition of the farmers of Dakota is being made public. It comports with what The Herald said months ago, when it was the first and only paper to tell the facts of the case. Desuetion is widespread, and nothing else for a man to do but to move to a larger section of prairie homes than there were when this paper made its first appeal. The drift of last summer ruined the crops on a large section of usually fertile land, and hundreds of farmers are not only impoverished and lacking the necessities of a bare existence, but they have no seed grain with which they can make a start in the spring.

The grip appears to be lessening its hold here as well as elsewhere. At Chicago, where the death rate has been as high as 130 daily it is now far below 100. Here there have been in all but nine deaths brought on by the disease, and Duluth can think its climate and situation that there haven't been many more. The epidemic has extended to the logging camps in this district and has embarrassed the operations of the loggers. It has also been felt by the Indians in the surrounding reserves, especially at Lake Vermilion, where there have been thirty-seven deaths.

SEEN AND HEARD.

In every Chinese laundry in Duluth the great Chinese lily can be seen, the long slender stalks shooting up from the great, round bunches, which usually occupy a place among a heap of stones piled in a basket. The Chinese laundry is a name given to the water and water-works plants, a name as far as the state likes the Chinese. The Chinese, prosaic and dull as the countenances we see here, have a bright and lively paper and The Herald which it continued success.

Wadena Pioneer. There will be a re-acting in the far western migration and people with means will go to states bordering on the Mississippi.

The cold weather this winter has been a great calamity and the news is from from the East will continue before they go any farther than Minnesota.

* * *

"Many years ago, before the present law was passed, I sold my wife a half of my infant farmer, whose wife was a half of my birth and breeding. The farmer and wife married another wife, a peasant's daughter, not from love, but only to wait on his lady wife. She carried water, cooked the food, and the two married women worked together and hunger, as the ground world-famous for its turn for their labor. One morning they awoke nearly dead from the bitterly cold rain that had fallen all night, with nothing to eat. The sun shone brightly, but the cold boy bit the house and house was taken with pneumonia and died. Mr. Knob was about 30 years of age. He leaves a wife and one daughter. He had a large circle of friends throughout Carroll and was a man of great popularity in the community. Merriam appointed him to the position of chairman of the finance committee, which he filled with credit being known as one of the handsomest workers in the house. He was known as possessing a great mind.

N. D. DEPPEY.

George Gould has purchased a tract of 600 acres in the Carlton, including a trout lake, which he could not take up a tent to cover the house and garden. Mr. Knob was about 30 years of age. He leaves a wife and one daughter. He had a large circle of friends throughout Carroll and was a man of great popularity in the community. Merriam appointed him to the position of chairman of the finance committee, which he filled with credit being known as one of the handsomest workers in the house. He was known as possessing a great mind.

Lord Charneller Halsbury of England, who has been writing a history of the law of his native country, has returned to Zanzibar from his exploring expedition to Masailand. He left his companion, Mr. Carroll, on Mt. Kiliman-Jaro.

Sister of Mr. Knob, Mrs. Anna R. Knob, the condition of the Empress of Austria has been very sad. She is subject to great depression of mind and settled melancholy, and gives undoubted evidence of the insanity hereditary in her family.

LA GRIPPE.

The general warmth of the North Spalding fire place offers strong indulgence as a smoker, and each evening when the atmosphere is chilly, groups of business men congregate in the smoking room of the hotel, on real estate, or else scheme towards for money and railroad men and money. The evening meetings of the road are frequent.

D. H. Merritt seems to like the lobby after one of his visits to the hotel, and his jaunty habitude involuntary looks around for black-bearded head of the iron bar.

M. R. Harrison's nervous strolls through the smoking room of the hotel, and his frequent visits to Duluthians, and J. A. Mackenzie's acquaintance of everyone, Mr. Harrison is just now figuring out the first payment on his new home.

Landlord Emerson's hand-shaking time and time again, he comes out of his office and says he has to his friend, Johnny Clinton, a new and expensive coat at night, while Raedt and Palmer hold place.

"Who are these fellows?" he demands, "and shut your eyes and throw a stone in the room."

"Gentlemen, you have seated yourself in that chair."

"To tell you the truth, Laura, I have been smoking a cigarette, I—I didn't expect to call this evening."

"And I have been eating onions. I—I wasn't looking for you, George."

Old Superior.

I have a large list of acre property on easy terms.

FRED BENNETT, 49 Ferguson block.

So Considerate,

(Issue old-time rival)—Maud, dear, how you know me so coldly!

"I know how it costs."

Maud (maliciously)—I didn't care Harry how much it cost, Irene, love.

Irene (sweetly)—I always had a curious way to know. When I was wearing it myself, you know, I couldn't very well ask him.

He Didn't Stay Long.

Cicago Tribune: "Laura, why do you turn away from me so coldly?"

"Because I have you seated yourself in that chair."

"To tell you the truth, Laura, I have been smoking a cigarette, I—I didn't expect to call this evening."

"And I have been eating onions. I—I wasn't looking for you, George."

Old Superior.

I have a large list of acre property on easy terms.

FRED BENNETT, 49 Ferguson block.

So Considerate,

(Issue old-time rival)—Maud, dear, how you know me so coldly!

"I know how it costs."

Maud (maliciously)—I didn't care Harry how much it cost, Irene, love.

Irene (sweetly)—I always had a curious way to know. When I was wearing it myself, you know, I couldn't very well ask him.

He Didn't Stay Long.

Cicago Tribune: "Laura, why do you turn away from me so coldly?"

"Because I have you seated yourself in that chair."

"To tell you the truth, Laura, I have been smoking a cigarette, I—I didn't expect to call this evening."

"And I have been eating onions. I—I wasn't looking for you, George."

Old Superior.

I have a large list of acre property on easy terms.

FRED BENNETT, 49 Ferguson block.

So Considerate,

(Issue old-time rival)—Maud, dear, how you know me so coldly!

"I know how it costs."

Maud (maliciously)—I didn't care Harry how much it cost, Irene, love.

Irene (sweetly)—I always had a curious way to know. When I was wearing it myself, you know, I couldn't very well ask him.

He Didn't Stay Long.

Cicago Tribune: "Laura, why do you turn away from me so coldly?"

"Because I have you seated yourself in that chair."

"To tell you the truth, Laura, I have been smoking a cigarette, I—I didn't expect to call this evening."

"And I have been eating onions. I—I wasn't looking for you, George."

Old Superior.

I have a large list of acre property on easy terms.

FRED BENNETT, 49 Ferguson block.

So Considerate,

(Issue old-time rival)—Maud, dear, how you know me so coldly!

"I know how it costs."

Maud (maliciously)—I didn't care Harry how much it cost, Irene, love.

Irene (sweetly)—I always had a curious way to know. When I was wearing it myself, you know, I couldn't very well ask him.

He Didn't Stay Long.

Cicago Tribune: "Laura, why do you turn away from me so coldly?"

"Because I have you seated yourself in that chair."

"To tell you the truth, Laura, I have been smoking a cigarette, I—I didn't expect to call this evening."

"And I have been eating onions. I—I wasn't looking for you, George."

Old Superior.

I have a large list of acre property on easy terms.

FRED BENNETT, 49 Ferguson block.

So Considerate,

(Issue old-time rival)—Maud, dear, how you know me so coldly!

"I know how it costs."

Maud (maliciously)—I didn't care Harry how much it cost, Irene, love.

Irene (sweetly)—I always had a curious way to know. When I was wearing it myself, you know, I couldn't very well ask him.

He Didn't Stay Long.

Cicago Tribune: "Laura, why do you turn away from me so coldly?"

"Because I have you seated yourself in that chair."

"To tell you the truth, Laura, I have been smoking a cigarette, I—I didn't expect to call this evening."

"And I have been eating onions. I—I wasn't looking for you, George."

Old Superior.

I have a large list of acre property on easy terms.

FRED BENNETT, 49 Ferguson block.

So Considerate,

(Issue old-time rival)—Maud, dear, how you know me so coldly!

"I know how it costs."

Maud (maliciously)—I didn't care Harry how much it cost, Irene, love.

Irene (sweetly)—I always had a curious way to know. When I was wearing it myself, you know, I couldn't very well ask him.

He Didn't Stay Long.

Cicago Tribune: "Laura, why do you turn away from me so coldly?"

"Because I have you seated yourself in that chair."

"To tell you the truth, Laura, I have been smoking a cigarette, I—I didn't expect to call this evening."

"And I have been eating onions. I—I wasn't looking for you, George."

Old Superior.

I have a large list of acre property on easy terms.

FRED BENNETT, 49 Ferguson block.

So Considerate,

(Issue old-time rival)—Maud, dear, how you know me so coldly!

"I know how it costs."

Maud (maliciously)—I didn't care Harry how much it cost, Irene, love.

Irene (sweetly)—I always had a curious way to know. When I was wearing it myself, you know, I couldn't very well ask him.

He Didn't Stay Long.

Cicago Tribune: "Laura, why do you turn away from me so coldly?"

"Because I have you seated yourself in that chair."

"To tell you the truth, Laura, I have been smoking a cigarette, I—I didn't expect to call this evening."

</div

DULUTH - AND - SUPERIOR - REAL - ESTATE.

I am offering some very good Investments on Both Sides of the River and have Perfect Facilities for Showing Property to Investors.

I HANDLE PROPERTY ONLY ON COMMISSION

So that parties listing property for sale with me may rely upon earnest work on my part to dispose of their Property to their Interest.

JAMES A. BOGGS.

OFFICES: ROOM 35, FARGUSSON BUILDING, DULUTH. OPPOSITE EUCLID HOTEL, SUPERIOR.

DR. LUMHOLTZ'S BOOK.

The Great Australian Traveller Publishes His Travels.

Alden's Manifold Cyclopaedia; Minor Book News Notes.

In a volume of 400 pages from the Siberian press Carl Lumholtz, the eminent Australian explorer, has given to the world the great results of his year's residence among the natives of Australia. Aside from the literary merits of the work, the value to science gives it rank among the most valuable productions of the last decade. Its pages will be eagerly read by the botanist, by the student of zoology, and by those who died man to be the most interesting study for man. Nothing ever written about Australia's inland races thrills half the light upon the darkness that has heretofore surrounded this great island as Carl Lumholtz's book.

In the fall of Carl Lumholtz, partly in the interest and at the expense of the University of Christiania, undertook an expedition to Australia, his object being to collect zoological and ethnographical specimens for a short time was spent in the Southeastern colonies of the island. In August, 1881, he penetrated into western Queensland, but turned back to the north. He then went into northern Queensland, for the year ending July, 1882, lived among the lowest race on the globe yet discovered. This tribe savages found to be among the most highly intelligent than the brutal treacherous and so low in the scale of being that they had not even "emerged from the stone age" in the history of development. He made his headquarters in the Herbert river, his base of operations, and sometimes only from using the greatest precautions that he escaped finding a grave in the midst of the wilderness.

After while making these anthropological studies, he devoted himself to collecting zoological specimens, several of which are new to science. This collection consists mainly of vertebrates and arthropods, and includes mammals. He brought from the wilds 700 specimens of birds and a large number of reptiles, etc. Science owes to him the discovery of 150 mammals, named as follows: Dendrolagus leucurus (the tree kangaroo); three opossums; Pseudochirus archeri; Pseudochirus herbertensis; Pseudochirus leucurus.

For the past few years Mr. Lumholtz has been traveling in Europe and America, delivering a series of lectures on his travels and discoveries. During the Paris exhibition, 1889, its most interesting sights were the American collection. During his American southern he was the guest of many great scientists. Duluth was also honored by receiving a visit from this traveler who lectured here a few months ago. In printing the American translation of Carl Lumholtz's book, the C. H. Charles Scribner's Sons have a volume well bound, printed on heavy paper and adorned with cuts and plates of a high order of artistic merit.

Again, he will lecture in Duluth, where he may be seen through a cordial reception.

If the first two volumes of Alden's Manifold Cyclopaedia, the criterion by which to judge of the completed work, it will be of very great value. It is not a diffuse and labored cyclopaedia, devoting hundreds of pages to subjects the reader cares not about. The book is in such shape as makes its volumes hard to hold, it is not so put together that its meat is almost undigible. On the contrary it is condensed, the entire article is compressed into a single page.

It is, however, but few pages to any subject, but deals of so many topics that it may almost be called a dictionary and is not an illustration of great value, that is, it is simply cheap.

It is expected that the book will be completed in 40 volumes of which 17 or 18, carrying nearly half through the alphabet, will be now issued.

It is a complete work of art.

Notes.

Haunts" by C. H. Herford appears in the February number of Lippincott's Magazine. This same number contains a striking story by M. H. Catherwood, the author of "The Romance of Dollard," "Cariboo Gold," and "Gold of the Yukon." This is a study of a peculiar character.

Andrew D. White resumed his "New Chapters in the Warfare of Science" in the Popular Science Monthly.

The forthcoming chapter will be on "Comparative Mythology."

It deals with the myths invented to explain strange shaped or distributed rocks, the story of Lot's wife, which has gone through many curious variations, as a special example.

The need of an illustrated weekly journal for the reader and his family has been recognized by a number of readers. Our illustrated monthlies lead the world in this direction.

But there is but few papers to hold the attention of the public. This monthly will soon come to exist.

The Illustrated American—whose initial number will appear in April—will combine the best features of those two monthlies and add the interest of American energy and enterprise, which will do for the weekly journals what The Century and Harper's did for the monthly.

Notes.

Women are needed after health will read "Fencing for Women," by Margaret Bland, in the February Outing.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(The Vikings' Graves.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

Where the cliffs stand, grim and steep.

From the shadows, long and cool,

Sweeping from the changing sky,

Touch at last the cooing waves,

Thundering near the Vikings grave.

(All the Years Round.)

Very quietly they sleep,

MATTERS IN SOCIETY.

The Days Whirling Along Toward the Beginning of Lent.

Personal Mention; Several Pleasant Parties to Note.

The Local Theatrical Gossip; Society of the West End.

Lent begins on Feb. 10, the first Sunday in Lent being Feb. 23, so there is not much time for society to enjoy itself before the generally accepted Lenten season begins. This year Lent will stop at least, the more public social festivities of the winter. Easter Sunday comes on April 6, so the spring, according to all the proverbs, will be early. But while Lent approaches so fast there is a dullness in social circles and it might about as well be here now, for all that is going on. There has been but little interest this week, a few sleighing parties, a few card parties and lots of grip and sickness.

The French band has had its fair the past week, having drawn a large crowd to Ingalls hall. Last Saturday was a concert by the band from West Superior and Monday there will be a dance.

The program has been completed for an elocutionary and musical entertainment to be given about the middle of February. The principal attraction will be Miss Annaetta Madison, a well and favorably known elocutionist of Cincinnati. She will be supported by Miss Myrtle French, Mr. Edgar Eva, Mr. Frank Horn and other well-known local musicians. The benefit is for the benefit of the Bethel. The plan of the concert is that building has been changed and the Opera house will be used instead. This is in response to the apparent necessity of having larger hall on account of the great interest taken in the proposed entertainment. Miss Sloan is a cousin of Mr. E. D. Whittington of this city. Dr. E. D. Whittington will be the guest of Rev. C. C. Sauer and family. Her letters of recommendation are of the highest order and give evidence of her eloquent powers are remarkably fine.

There was a very delightful sociable given at the Endion Baptist church last night for young people. Oysters and other delicacies were served. A musical and literary program was given.

Schilling's fortnightly orchestra concert will be held at Turner hall tomorrow evening.

The "Pirates of Penzance" will be put on at the house of local talent in a few weeks.

NOTES OF PEOPLE.

K. S. Munger and Frank Burke returned from Washington a few days ago.

Archibald A. Terryberry has gone for a month's visit with friends at Willow Grove, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Crittenden of Lake City, local guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed McDonald.

Rev. Charles S. H. Dunn of the First Methodist church has returned from the East.

Mr. George E. Foster and family of Oil City, Pa., have arrived and will spend a couple of months in Duluth. Mr. Foster is heavily interested here.

Miss Fitch, mother and sister of Lieut. Fitch, another United States engineer corps have arrived in Duluth and they will spend some time here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hasford have gone to Norwalk, O., to attend the funeral of Hasford's father.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bacon leave for a trip through the South. They go to Florida, New Orleans, Galveston, and on to Mexico. The trip will be made by easy stages.

Mr. Philip Southern, who left some time ago for a place in Boston, a Boston magazine, has returned. He says he has found no place to return to him.

Mr. Crosley of North Hampton Mass., who has been in the city for the past few days, has gone to Boston.

Col. and Mrs. George E. Welles have gone to Chicago, where the colonel will take some medical treatment.

Mrs. Gruber, who has been visiting Mrs. C. E. Budden for some time, has returned to her home in Ely.

Mr. Ned McLaughlin no sooner got here than he went back to Fort Wayne, Ind., to receive a receipt of news of his father's severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Richardson returned from a shortbridal trip this week and are now snugly ensconced at 128 West Third street.

* Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas have returned from a short bridal trip.

Mr. Z. B. Coleman, the celebrated colored man of Minneapolis, will sing at the Presbyterian church on Saturday morning, and proudly at the usual meeting Sunday evening. Mr. Coleman has his troupe in Duluth. He comes here with high spirits and seems magnificient. Everyone knows this is true.

There are any number of actresses on the American stage today, whose countenances to the public have been their dresses and the scandals they have been involved in. And these same women can draw full houses, and make the world exist. But the critics say black is blue and white, white is black. He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

He has but mighty little faith in these critics.

WORLD OF COMMERCE.

Wheat Is Very Dull on Change;
But Little Trading Done.

Prices of Grain and Stocks;
Chicago Wheat Gossip;
Close.

Wheat was very quiet today with prices steady and little changed from yesterday's close. Cables were quiet and steady exports from the seaboard were fairly good. All American markets were very dull. The visible supply decrease on Monday is estimated at only 200,000 bushels. The market here was without features of any kind. Cash wheat was neglected. No. 1 hard closed at 77. No. 1 northern, 76. No. 2 northern, 71; all nominal. May No. 1 hard opened at 80. Soft sold steadily. Light sales at 80. May No. 1 northern opened at 77. May No. 2 northern closed at 77.

The week's movement. Up to this morning the week's receipts of wheat have aggregated 28,767 bushels, while the estimate for the week is 100,000 bushels. Total wheat held in storage is 176,000 bushels. The increase will be about 35,000 bushels. Corn receipts will aggregate 15,000 bushels and shipments 62,000 bushels, showing a decrease of about 7,500 bushels. Oats receipts, estimated to be 50,000 bushels, will be about 100,000 bushels.

The Daily Movement. Cars on track: Wheat, 21, oats, 1. Receipts: Wheat, 12,757 bushels; corn, 4050 bushels; Shipment: Wheat, 1321 bushels. Minn. state port: 175 cars. Total receipts: yesterday, wheat, 27,123 bushels; shipments: Wheat, 16,800 bushels; flour, 15,500 bushels. Chicago cars on track: Wheat, 57; corn, 177; oats, 180; rye, 13; barley, 95.

Chicago Letter. The following dispatches received today by W. W. Bill & Co., Phoenix building:

The stock market was narrow as usual on Saturday but was firm. Coal stocks were up and general demand good, while the grain dealers sought a slight advance. The most prominent feature of the day was a drop of five points in Chicago & Rock Island stocks, and the impression seems to be pretty generalized that this stock will reduce its price if it's dividends. The statement showing a decrease in the value of $70,000 evidence that the short interest is considerably up. Present-day cables say Rock Island is earning more net money than ever before in its history and the same is true of other grain dealers.

New York Stocks. The following are closing prices on the New York stock exchange as reported by W. W. Bill & Co.

Chicago, Bar, cotton & Quaker Today. Yesterday.
American Can Co. 102 1/2 102 1/2
Mil-southern 27 27
Northern Pulp 70 70
Cotton Oil & Paint 70 70
Sugar Trust 61 61
Gas & Electric 47 47
Lumber & Specialty 47 47
Chicago Northwestern 111 111
Rock Island 100 100
Lake Shores 96 96
Rice 96 96
Tenn. Coal & Iron 29 29
H. & C. T. T. 27 27
Atchison 25 25
Delaware & Lehigh 136 136
New York Stock 140 140
Lead Trust 21 21
Wheat 77 77
Union Oil Co. 24 24
Wilson in Control 89 89
Oil 100 100

The Bank Statement. New York City. — The weekly bank statement shows the following changes:

Reserve, decrease 765,254
Loans, increase 336,784
Specie, increase 10,000
Lead ten per cent, increase 100,000
Deposits, increase 1,000,000
Circulation, increase 17,750

The banks now hold $14,008,400 in excess of their total note.

The Minnesota Close. No. 1 hard wheat, 21; No. 1 northern, 20; No. 2 northern, January 22; March 22; May 22.

An EVENING FIRE. The house of J. C. Schaefer, Carpenter's Lane.

Early last evening the new house of J. C. Schaefer at Lester Park was totally destroyed by fire. The flames were discovered by a neighbor and before anything could be done the house had gone. It was started under a builder's risk and was nearly completed. Its value was $100. The fire is believed to have originated in the attic. There is no fire protection at Lester Park though the people expect water works the year. The fire could be seen plainly from the air.

By the fire about $1200 worth of carpenter's tools were burned or rendered worthless. The mechanics, F. W. James, James Johnson, workers O. Anderson, Nels Johnson, George Lounsberry, W. Palmer, George Waller.

PATIONAL. William O., general freight agent of the South Pacific road, passed through St. Paul, where he had been attending a trial meeting.

Mr. F. M. Wiley and wife, St. Paul, A. E. Lawrence and wife, Minneapolis, are now in St. Paul.

Mr. L. G. Clark, who has been working for a winter's stay in St. Augustine, Fla.

Mr. Harper, representing Pond's lotion, is preparing for the coming of Mr. George K. Rensom, the famous Silverton traveler, who will lecture in Duluth March 6.

Mrs. Lord, a sister of Mrs. McGowan, left this morning for a visit to Denver.

REGISTER RESUME.

The Spalding, Patrick Henry, Clerks, 10 a.m.; Dr. J. L. Lovell, A. B. Peter, J. H. Johnson, Dr. L. A. Howlett, A. P. Sillen, R. W. Worm, New York; R. J. Knob, St. Paul; C. Rademaker, Indianapolis; F. E. and M. J. Woodward, Wichita; N. J. Kasson, Winona; C. O. Inman, Elm Grove; A. A. Thier, Chicago.

At the St. Louis, G. E. Hibbard, J. F. C. N. Scott, Chicago; J. M. Fox, Birmingham; R. E. John, Kyro, Worcester, Mass.; W. W. Marshall, St. Paul.

At the Minnesota, H. A. Tolman, 120-Acre, 21-51-14; Wm. M. Atteley, L. S. Judd, Mittan; A. L. Woodward, Sioux Falls; W. A. Rogers, Aitkin; W. F. Fisher, Jr., St. Paul; L. Filburn, Crookston.

E. W. MARKELL, St. Louis block.

A FORMAL APPEAL.

The City Republican Committee in Connection With Mr. Hall.

Duluth, Minn., Jan. 31, 1890.

To the Republicans and Citizens of Duluth:

The republican party in the past has sought to offer candidates for office who were acceptable to the people. So far as the committee has been informed, the republican nominees for aldermen are receiving general and hearty support in the city and ward elections.

The counsel and assistance of republicans of integrity and experience have aided the committee in the course which they have pursued.

We find that Mr. M. O. Hall sought the nomination of mayor at the last city republican convention, and that his nomination was not the result of an accident.

At the present time it is apparent that Mr. Hall has neither the sympathy nor the support of the republican party or the people.

The other night of this week, with Mr. Hall present, the committee thoroughly canvassed the situation and told him that they could not meet the arguments presented him, and suggested to him the advisability of withdrawing from the field. He rejected the suggestion.

The committee then demanded his resignation, which he after consideration agreed to deliver to the committee today at 10 a.m. upon an assurance to be reimbursed for his expenditures. At 10 o'clock a.m. today we were prepared with such assurance. Mr. Hall then refused to withdraw.

Representative and democratic committees have the right to disapprove nominees of conventions.

We know that the law governing elections is such that we cannot now prevent the nomination of Mr. Hall from appearing on the ballot.

With an overwhelming republican sentiment and demand for the withdrawal of Mr. M. O. Hall from the republican ticket, we are compelled to act above and other reasons which are apparent to the public; we take the authority to remove Mr. M. O. Hall as the city republican nominee for mayor. We recommend to the voters of Duluth to vote for the best interests of the public and that they do not vote for M. O. Hall for mayor of Duluth.

H. C. HELM,
W. M. STEPHENSON,
H. S. LOREN,
N. F. HUGG,
E. S. PALMER,
N. N. ONE.

Mr. Hall replies:

To the Republicans and Citizens of Duluth:

In response to the demand of the city republican committee, I have to say simply that I wish to place my resignation in the hands of the committee at the earliest opportunity for the sake of my personal or political course and challenge specific accusations from responsible sources.

As the candidate elected of the republican party is to be appointed to the office of mayor, I shall abide the issue at the polls which denys the usurped "authority" of the city republican committee to "remove" me, and upon the request of the declined to withdraw from the convention or resign at once. I appeal for the support of all loyal republicans who believe in fair play at this critical juncture in the campaign.

M. O. HALL.

CITY BRIEFS.

The election returns will be read from the stage of Temple Opera Tuesday evening.

The New South Shore buffet car had a good patronage last night.

The new South Shore car had a good patronage last night throughout the country, owing to the fact between the National and Players leagues. Duluth will not have a nine this season.

Palmer & Hall, architects of this city, have opened offices in Superior where they have built several structures.

The Swedish Publishing and Printing company, heretofore mentioned, have filed articles of incorporation today with the secretary of state. This company will publish The Weekly Duluth Post. The capital stock is $100,000.

The Catholic church will be 400 feet. It stands 22 feet high and 100 feet wide. The cost will be $90,000 and will hold 1000 people.

A stage 20 feet wide will be placed at the rear, and folding doors will be set in the middle. Work will begin within four weeks.

On Monday evening a canvaus is to be held at Lakeside to place a set of town hall accommodations.

According to the idea of J. E. Dill, morning paper, "respectable" buildings stand near the "enclosures," there will be but few present. But, thanks to the good sense of the people, such idiotic advice is taken by others this morning.

Gustavus Brandtgen took second charge of the fire this morning.

The following publications in newspaper were recorded at Pioneer Fuel company's office, Hotel St. Louis, 12 m. above; 3 p.m.—7 above; 6 p.m.—11 1/2 below; 9 p.m.—below; 7 a.m.—1 1/2 below; 9 a.m.—1 below; 12 m.—9 above; Maximum, 11 above. Minimum, 1 1/2 above. Daily range, 15. Minimum, 1 1/2 above. Masonic Hall will be ready for occupancy in the fall.

Several Duluth parties will take a tour through Mexico this winter.

The skating rink has been well cleaned up.

The Young Men's Club will give a dance Friday night in Ingalls hall. Appearance indicate that it will be the largest attended affair the club has had.

Mr. Burdick, the temperance lecturer, will give another address at the Opera house tomorrow night. There will be evening sessions at the church in the evenings.

The lower hallways in The Spalding are being frescoed. It is not known whether the lobby, reading and dining room will be decorated.

No single dress or valise or disturbance of the peace was up at the police court, and court officers spent the day mostly occupied in dealing with delinquent swindlers and such like diversions.

The election tickets will be delivered to the judges of election Monday afternoon.

Two drunks fighting in the vicinity of Sixth avenue west were collared and run to the city cooler this afternoon.

Two of the swindlers got into a dispute this afternoon over the respective candidates for mayor and one was vanquished and his cap thrown into the middle of the street.

Other Americans are highly excited over the fact that he had been robbed. A reporter he stated that Lundgren & Son, the contractors, had taken him into a room in the hotel and one of them held him down while the other snatched through his clothes and took $100 from him. They claimed that he owes out a warrant for the arrest of the parties. Their side remains to be told.

CONSTANTLY COMING!

YES, THEY ARE.

The necktie wearers that appreciate rich qualities, latest patterns, and above all the remarkable low prices on this, OUR SPECIAL NECKWEAR SALE.

KILGORE & SIEWERT

ST. LOUIS HOTEL BLOCK, DULUTH.

Store closes at 6:30 P.M.

LOANS MADE

AT

6 AND 7 PER CENT.

MONEY ON HAND—NO DELAY.

JONES & BRACE,

Real Estate and Loans,

409 FIRST NATIONAL BANK BLDG.

R. KROJANKER,

PRACTICAL FURRIER

Manufacturer of Ladies and Gents Fine Furs, Sleigh Robes and Mats.

Altering, repairing, cleaning and dyeing all kinds of furs a specialty. Good workmanship guaranteed.

HIGHEST PRICE PAID FOR RAW FURS.

209 East Superior Street, Duluth, Minn.

WEST END

A Political Party for Davis, A Boy Baby-Hurt.

A few people seem to think that M. O. Hall will be interested to know that the weather is going to be decidedly warmer, at least so says the signal office.

This is the case, however, that has half an inch in the past two weeks. Over the Northwest there has been a rapid rise in the temperature and Duluth is keeping up with the procession. At the rate of forty miles, blowing at the rate of forty miles per hour, a zephyr of twenty-four miles an hour is also being breathed upon St. Vincent.

The Canal Plugs. Assistant City Engineers Lewis has just finished the plan of the canal and its connection with the city in Normanna hall Thursday evening.

This is not the case; in fact, it is the opposite. Many people who were engaged in the work of the canal are to be blamed for the delay. It is the duty of the city engineer to see that the canal is completed as quickly as possible.

As the candidate elected of the city republican party is to be appointed to the office of mayor, I shall abide the issue at the polls which denys the usurped "authority" of the city republican committee to "remove" me, and upon the request of the declined to withdraw from the convention or resign at once. I appeal for the support of all loyal republicans who believe in fair play at this critical juncture in the campaign.

M. O. HALL.

CITY BRIEFS.

The election returns will be read from the stage of Temple Opera Tuesday evening.

The New South Shore buffet car had a good patronage last night throughout the country, owing to the fact between the National and Players leagues. Duluth will not have a nine this season.

Palmer & Hall, architects of this city, have opened offices in Superior where they have built several structures.

The Swedish Publishing and Printing company, heretofore mentioned, have filed articles of incorporation today with the secretary of state. This company will publish The Weekly Duluth Post. The capital stock is $100,000.

The Catholic church will be 400 feet. It stands 22 feet high and 100 feet wide. The cost will be $90,000 and will hold 1000 people.

A stage 20 feet wide will be placed at the rear, and folding doors will be set in the middle. Work will begin within four weeks.

Several Duluth parties will take a tour through Mexico this winter.

The skating rink has been well cleaned up.

The Young Men's Club will give a dance Friday night in Ingalls hall. Appearance indicate that it will be the largest attended affair the club has had.

Mr. Burdick, the temperance lecturer, will give another address at the Opera house tomorrow night. There will be evening sessions at the church in the evenings.

The lower hallways in The Spalding are being frescoed. It is not known whether the lobby, reading and dining room will be decorated.

No single dress or valise or disturbance of the peace was up at the police court, and court officers spent the day mostly occupied in dealing with delinquent swindlers and such like diversions.

The election tickets will be delivered to the judges of election Monday afternoon.

Two drunks fighting in the vicinity of Sixth avenue west were collared and run to the city cooler this afternoon.

Two of the swindlers got into a dispute this afternoon over the respective candidates for mayor and one was vanquished and his cap thrown into the

EVENING HERALD.

ELIOT LORDE, Publisher.

PRICE THREE CENTS—Subscription Rates
Daily, by mail, per year, $7.00
Monthly, by mail, per one month, 2.00
Daily, by mail, per one month, .75
Daily, by carrier, per week, 18

Entered at the postoffice at Duluth, Minn., as second-class mail matter.

The Washington office of The Herald is open to all who write to it. The paper is kept on file and where The Herald correspondent will welcome visitors from the Northwest.

FOR JUSTICE.

Never in the experience or knowledge of the editor of The Herald has a meager attack been made upon a citizen of any city than was made in the Duluth News of yesterday upon the republican candidate for mayor, M. O. Hall, in its article headed "It Cost Hall Fifty Dollars," which is reproduced with fitting replies in another column. The same charge in substance was submitted general terms to the editor of The Herald, aid more than a week ago, but the promised substantiation was not attempted, although The Herald editor offered unhesitatingly to withdraw all support of The Herald from M. O. Hall, if the charge was substantiated, and to declare publicly why he did so.

Now at the eleventh hour, within a day of the appointed election, this charge is sprung upon Mr. Hall when he has no sufficient opportunity to combat or refute it. His sworn unqualified denial and corroborative testimony are given in this issue of The Herald, and if there is sufficient legal ground for a suit for libel, it will be brought against The News. The action was the meager still, because the published course of the republican city committee, so contrary to all precedent, appeared at first so gravely damaging to Mr. Hall's campaign and himself personally. We do not charge that this was a deliberate plot to ruin personally and politically a man of well-known standing, the cashier of a leading city bank, but do say unhesitatingly that the patent thoughtlessness or recklessness of the course adopted would have that effect, whether intended or not, unless it was promptly and thoroughly counteracted.

This is the course by which it is hoped to elect the independent candidate, Mr. M. J. Davis, and we trust sincerely for the credit of Duluth that it will prove to be an ignominious failure. All fair-minded readers of The Herald will bear just witness to the conservative and calm temper of The Herald in this deplorable and super-heated campaign. We have said no word impugning the character of the independent candidate or questioning the motives of the intelligent support given him, outside of the notorious, biased action of those who have deserted Mr. Hall chiefly on the score of his public-spirited action in the matter of his public testimonial fund. Mr. M. J. Davis, as The Herald has shown from the books of the treasurer, T. W. Hoopes, and from its printed list, was also a subscriber to this fund, to his lasting credit, but this fact has been wilfully suppressed in the campaign discrimination against Mr. Hall, among unreasoning or blinded laborers; we have not seen reason to support Mr. M. J. Davis, the independent candidate against Mr. Hall, but we have quarreled with no man's independent judgment. We object to him first because he was not willing to await the determination of the republican party convention before announcing himself as a candidate, though he must have known that such action would tend inevitably to distract and divide the party. We object to him secondly as an apparent bolter from the convention, though we are not sure of his responsibility for the use of his name there. We object to him thirdly because we do not consider him qualified to discharge the duties of the first executive offices in the city with credit to himself or the city. He is a man of extremely limited executive training or experience, and so imperfectly educated in his notions to The Herald of his acceptance of his nomination by the alleged "labor" party, he wrote literally as follows: "Please don't forget that I Excepted the Nomination for Mayor Last Thursday night. M. J. DAVIS." His course in the council, as alderman, has not warranted our confidence. He has shown himself irresolute, lamentably dependent and lacking in progressive public spirit. The mayor under our present charter may be little more than a shackled figurehead, but The Herald wants, at least, a creditable figurehead and not a mere proxy for E. G. Swanstrom.

The signatures, hastily gathered, of some of the really representative republicans of Duluth, to a formal denunciation of the ill-judged, unauthorized and incompetent action of the city republican committee in attempting to "remove" the republican convention candidate, show what the stand of the party really is at this juncture. We have not questioned and do not question the integrity of the committee, but it is clearly wholly lacking in judgment and acquaintance with its powers and duties. The chairman, H. C. Helm, is the brother of the son-in-law of E. G. Swanstrom, and the other members of the committee are his appointees. They certainly cannot be counted among the well known and influential republicans of this city.

If Mr. Swanstrom did not urge or influence their action by biased representations, he is not entitled to the credit which is commonly given him. One thing is certain, their cause has aroused a just sympathy for Mr. Hall, which is stirring the whole city.

M. J. Davis, alderman from the Fourth ward, is a member of the city committee of yesterday upon the republican candidate for mayor, M. O. Hall, in its article headed "It Cost Hall Fifty Dollars," which is reproduced with fitting replies in another column. The same charge in substance was submitted general terms to the editor of The Herald, aid more than a week ago, but the promised substantiation was not attempted, although The Herald editor offered unhesitatingly to withdraw all support of The Herald from M. O. Hall, if the charge was substantiated, and to declare publicly why he did so.

Now at the eleventh hour, within a day of the appointed election, this charge is sprung upon Mr. Hall when he has no sufficient opportunity to combat or refute it. His sworn unqualified denial and corroborative testimony are given in this issue of The Herald, and if there is sufficient legal ground for a suit for libel, it will be brought against The News. The action was the meager still, because the published course of the republican city committee, so contrary to all precedent, appeared at first so gravely damaging to Mr. Hall's campaign and himself personally. We do not charge that this was a deliberate plot to ruin personally and politically a man of well-known standing, the cashier of a leading city bank, but do say unhesitatingly that the patent thoughtlessness or recklessness of the course adopted would have that effect, whether intended or not, unless it was promptly and thoroughly counteracted.

This is the course by which it is hoped to elect the independent candidate, Mr. M. J. Davis, and we trust sincerely for the credit of Duluth that it will prove to be an ignominious failure. All fair-minded readers of The Herald will bear just witness to the conservative and calm temper of The Herald in this deplorable and super-heated campaign. We have said no word impugning the character of the independent candidate or questioning the motives of the intelligent support given him, outside of the notorious, biased action of those who have deserted Mr. Hall chiefly on the score of his public-spirited action in the matter of his public testimonial fund. Mr. M. J. Davis, as The Herald has shown from the books of the treasurer, T. W. Hoopes, and from its printed list, was also a subscriber to this fund, to his lasting credit, but this fact has been wilfully suppressed in the campaign discrimination against Mr. Hall, among unreasoning or blinded laborers; we have not seen reason to support Mr. M. J. Davis, the independent candidate against Mr. Hall, but we have quarreled with no man's independent judgment. We object to him first because he was not willing to await the determination of the republican party convention before announcing himself as a candidate, though he must have known that such action would tend inevitably to distract and divide the party. We object to him secondly as an apparent bolter from the convention, though we are not sure of his responsibility for the use of his name there. We object to him thirdly because we do not consider him qualified to discharge the duties of the first executive offices in the city with credit to himself or the city. He is a man of extremely limited executive training or experience, and so imperfectly educated in his notions to The Herald of his acceptance of his nomination by the alleged "labor" party, he wrote literally as follows: "Please don't forget that I Excepted the Nomination for Mayor Last Thursday night. M. J. DAVIS." His course in the council, as alderman, has not warranted our confidence. He has shown himself irresolute, lamentably dependent and lacking in progressive public spirit. The mayor under our present charter may be little more than a shackled figurehead, but The Herald wants, at least, a creditable figurehead and not a mere proxy for E. G. Swanstrom.

The signatures, hastily gathered, of some of the really representative republicans of Duluth, to a formal denunciation of the ill-judged, unauthorized and incompetent action of the city republican committee in attempting to "remove" the republican convention candidate, show what the stand of the party really is at this juncture. We have not questioned and do not question the integrity of the committee, but it is clearly wholly lacking in judgment and acquaintance

TALKS WITH MANY.

A Man of Past.

To the Editor of The Herald: It is customary as well as very fashionable for the defeated party in all conventions to raise a cry of fraud, because they are not doing as well as the other side. But we have had a taste of abuse upon the republican party, their convention and their candidate is unusual and unusual for more, and not yet given up by either side. At all primaries as well as at all conventions candidates are their friends and supporters are expected to put forth every effort to make them succeed, and any candidate or public journal that does not know this is not sufficiently intelligent to represent an intelligent constituency. The day of the last nomination, we do not know, but Mr. Hall and his friends would have cried fraud just to be fashionable. But we do not go to such unwarrantable extremes.

The defeated factions, who by their position and acts have justly earned the name of "Sore Heads," have shown us that the republican party is not the only party that can be a certain winner. As Duluth showed that 374 people at the last government census, these companies are bound to believe there is none, proof. The nomination of M. O. Hall proves that one man can be a winner. Mr. Hall and his friends had more energy or "get up and get" qualities than their opponents, which deserves to be noticed, and especially desirable in any candidate and especially desirable in the coming mayoralty of Duluth. While his opponents even admit that he is a rising young man, he has more absolute certainty of good return as here in Duluth. She is the United City not only of the unsatisfied ones but of the West.

A YEAR AGO.

Today a year ago the labor party put up a ticket. The democrats failed to organize.

The Northern Pacific railroad improved its service by putting in reclining chair cars.

The opening of the Montreal Star take in the city.

In the harbor broke, and the harbor was practically open.

Major Sutphen uses the usual proclamations to close saloons on election day.

NOTED PEOPLE.

Florence Marryat, the novelist, who has written in all some forty novels, including ghost stories.

Frances Mankiewicz, wife of Consul Mankiewicz, has been nominated a life member of the Academy of Arts in Paris.

Rev. Dr. Charles F. Thwing, formerly of Cambridge and now of Minneapolis, is prominently mentioned in connection with the presidency of Oberlin College.

No one realizes this quite than the newspaper reporter. His mission and daily business is to gather and collect facts: the quest for news, the search for the true, the avoidance of no particular source, and the use of the best.

President Harrison is to be dictated to, who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Prospective candidates for county offices will please make a note of this.

SEEN AND HEARD.

It is quite doubtful whether such deep interest has ever been excited at the present municipal election as is shown at the present one. Business is seriously hampered; society is dead; politics are dead; and the most serious concern in the one remaining—politics! No one realizes this quite than the newspaper reporter. His mission and daily business is to gather and collect facts: the quest for news, the search for the true, the avoidance of no particular source, and the use of the best.

President Harrison is to be dictated to, who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Prospective candidates for county offices will please make a note of this.

President Harrison shall be permitted to dictate, as who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Major Sutphen uses the usual proclamations to close saloons on election day.

NOTED PEOPLE.

Florence Marryat, the novelist, who has written in all some forty novels, including ghost stories.

Frances Mankiewicz, wife of Consul Mankiewicz, has been nominated a life member of the Academy of Arts in Paris.

Rev. Dr. Charles F. Thwing, formerly of Cambridge and now of Minneapolis, is prominently mentioned in connection with the presidency of Oberlin College.

No one realizes this quite than the newspaper reporter. His mission and daily business is to gather and collect facts: the quest for news, the search for the true, the avoidance of no particular source, and the use of the best.

President Harrison is to be dictated to, who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Prospective candidates for county offices will please make a note of this.

President Harrison shall be permitted to dictate, as who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Major Sutphen uses the usual proclamations to close saloons on election day.

NOTED PEOPLE.

Florence Marryat, the novelist, who has written in all some forty novels, including ghost stories.

Frances Mankiewicz, wife of Consul Mankiewicz, has been nominated a life member of the Academy of Arts in Paris.

Rev. Dr. Charles F. Thwing, formerly of Cambridge and now of Minneapolis, is prominently mentioned in connection with the presidency of Oberlin College.

No one realizes this quite than the newspaper reporter. His mission and daily business is to gather and collect facts: the quest for news, the search for the true, the avoidance of no particular source, and the use of the best.

President Harrison is to be dictated to, who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Prospective candidates for county offices will please make a note of this.

President Harrison shall be permitted to dictate, as who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Major Sutphen uses the usual proclamations to close saloons on election day.

NOTED PEOPLE.

Florence Marryat, the novelist, who has written in all some forty novels, including ghost stories.

Frances Mankiewicz, wife of Consul Mankiewicz, has been nominated a life member of the Academy of Arts in Paris.

Rev. Dr. Charles F. Thwing, formerly of Cambridge and now of Minneapolis, is prominently mentioned in connection with the presidency of Oberlin College.

No one realizes this quite than the newspaper reporter. His mission and daily business is to gather and collect facts: the quest for news, the search for the true, the avoidance of no particular source, and the use of the best.

President Harrison is to be dictated to, who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Prospective candidates for county offices will please make a note of this.

President Harrison shall be permitted to dictate, as who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Major Sutphen uses the usual proclamations to close saloons on election day.

NOTED PEOPLE.

Florence Marryat, the novelist, who has written in all some forty novels, including ghost stories.

Frances Mankiewicz, wife of Consul Mankiewicz, has been nominated a life member of the Academy of Arts in Paris.

Rev. Dr. Charles F. Thwing, formerly of Cambridge and now of Minneapolis, is prominently mentioned in connection with the presidency of Oberlin College.

No one realizes this quite than the newspaper reporter. His mission and daily business is to gather and collect facts: the quest for news, the search for the true, the avoidance of no particular source, and the use of the best.

President Harrison is to be dictated to, who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Prospective candidates for county offices will please make a note of this.

President Harrison shall be permitted to dictate, as who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Major Sutphen uses the usual proclamations to close saloons on election day.

NOTED PEOPLE.

Florence Marryat, the novelist, who has written in all some forty novels, including ghost stories.

Frances Mankiewicz, wife of Consul Mankiewicz, has been nominated a life member of the Academy of Arts in Paris.

Rev. Dr. Charles F. Thwing, formerly of Cambridge and now of Minneapolis, is prominently mentioned in connection with the presidency of Oberlin College.

No one realizes this quite than the newspaper reporter. His mission and daily business is to gather and collect facts: the quest for news, the search for the true, the avoidance of no particular source, and the use of the best.

President Harrison is to be dictated to, who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Prospective candidates for county offices will please make a note of this.

President Harrison shall be permitted to dictate, as who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Major Sutphen uses the usual proclamations to close saloons on election day.

NOTED PEOPLE.

Florence Marryat, the novelist, who has written in all some forty novels, including ghost stories.

Frances Mankiewicz, wife of Consul Mankiewicz, has been nominated a life member of the Academy of Arts in Paris.

Rev. Dr. Charles F. Thwing, formerly of Cambridge and now of Minneapolis, is prominently mentioned in connection with the presidency of Oberlin College.

No one realizes this quite than the newspaper reporter. His mission and daily business is to gather and collect facts: the quest for news, the search for the true, the avoidance of no particular source, and the use of the best.

President Harrison is to be dictated to, who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Prospective candidates for county offices will please make a note of this.

President Harrison shall be permitted to dictate, as who shall be mayor of Duluth this spring, and will be in a far better position to dictate the entire county ticket next fall.

Major Sutphen uses the usual proclamations to close saloons on election day.

NOTED PEOPLE.

Florence Marryat, the novelist, who has written in all some forty novels, including ghost stories.

Frances Mankiewicz, wife of Consul Mankiewicz, has been nominated a life member of the Academy of Arts in Paris.

Rev. Dr. Charles F. Thwing, formerly of Cambridge and now of Minneapolis, is prominently mentioned in connection with the presidency of Oberlin College.

No one realizes this quite than the newspaper reporter. His mission and daily business is to gather and collect facts: the quest for news, the search for the true, the avoidance of no particular source, and the use of the best.

A CALL TO REPUBLICANS.

Situation Reviewed Carefully and Calmly by a Peasant Man.

Reasons are Plenty for Following the Straight Ticket.

Mr. Hall and the Reasons for Strongly Pushing Him On.

The following letter of Mr. D. G. Cash to the republican voters of the city should be read by all. It voices the sentiment of a rapidly increasing number of republicans whose ranks are growing hourly and who bid fair to save the politics of the city from the disgrace with which it was threatened:

I was very heavily in favor of the candidacy of Mr. H. L. Pearson for mayor of Duluth last year, and I sincerely trust that he would receive the nomination of the republican party to do everything in my power to secure him. I would afford no man more opportunity to do everything in his power to obtain the nomination and I was greatly pleased to see that he did so. The campaign itself was sometimes very difficult for a man who had been so consistently disengaged when those who do not go west were after a candidate. But Mr. H. L. Pearson told Mr. O. Hall that I was not strong enough to sustain him. I was not made up my mind whom to support for mayor at first, but I have thought it over fully now, and I had thought the matter over fully.

I have since thoroughly considered the situation, and have determined to give Mr. Hall my unanimous support. I will now state my reasons for coming to this determination.

In the first place, as a life-long republican, I believe in the principles of the party, and I support the regular nominees of their party even though they are not the best men. They are incompetent or otherwise unfit to fill offices.

If, therefore, Mr. Hall receives the republican nomination for the presidency, and is a competent and upright man, I will support him.

I have attended a great many conventions and have been much in experience that where there is a man of ability and reputation, he is prominently before the convention and the public, and disdains to be a mere name and organization a union. They were not lovers of chin music and they did not organize, as might be supposed at the time, for political purposes, but they formed the Scandinavian Union.

It is intended to increase the membership to forty or fifty,

in fact the society sees its way

to a large number of members and to make it a feature in musical circles.

It will embrace an orchestra, a band, singers and constant practice will be carried on to bring all departments up to a high standard.

Officers were elected yesterday as follows: J. H. Nordly, president; F. Engberg, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Svart, musical director. The regular meetings will be held monthly, and a general meeting of course, to support the party and the local republican.

I have attended a great many conventions

and have been much in experience that

where there is a man of ability and reputation, he is prominently before the convention and the public, and disdains to be a mere name and organization a union. They were not lovers of chin music and they did not organize, as might be supposed at the time, for political purposes, but they formed the Scandinavian Union.

It is intended to increase the membership to forty or fifty,

in fact the society sees its way

to a large number of members and to make it a feature in musical circles.

It will embrace an orchestra, a band,

singers and constant practice will be carried on to bring all departments up to a high standard.

Officers were elected yesterday as follows: J. H. Nordly, president; F. Engberg, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Svart, musical director. The regular meetings will be held monthly, and a general meeting of course, to support the party and the local republican.

I have attended a great many conventions

and have been much in experience that

where there is a man of ability and reputation, he is prominently before the convention and the public, and disdains to be a mere name and organization a union. They were not lovers of chin music and they did not organize, as might be supposed at the time, for political purposes, but they formed the Scandinavian Union.

It is intended to increase the membership to forty or fifty,

in fact the society sees its way

to a large number of members and to make it a feature in musical circles.

It will embrace an orchestra, a band,

singers and constant practice will be carried on to bring all departments up to a high standard.

Officers were elected yesterday as follows: J. H. Nordly, president; F. Engberg, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Svart, musical director. The regular meetings will be held monthly, and a general meeting of course, to support the party and the local republican.

I have attended a great many conventions

and have been much in experience that

where there is a man of ability and reputation, he is prominently before the convention and the public, and disdains to be a mere name and organization a union. They were not lovers of chin music and they did not organize, as might be supposed at the time, for political purposes, but they formed the Scandinavian Union.

It is intended to increase the membership to forty or fifty,

in fact the society sees its way

to a large number of members and to make it a feature in musical circles.

It will embrace an orchestra, a band,

singers and constant practice will be carried on to bring all departments up to a high standard.

Officers were elected yesterday as follows: J. H. Nordly, president; F. Engberg, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Svart, musical director. The regular meetings will be held monthly, and a general meeting of course, to support the party and the local republican.

I have attended a great many conventions

and have been much in experience that

where there is a man of ability and reputation, he is prominently before the convention and the public, and disdains to be a mere name and organization a union. They were not lovers of chin music and they did not organize, as might be supposed at the time, for political purposes, but they formed the Scandinavian Union.

It is intended to increase the membership to forty or fifty,

in fact the society sees its way

to a large number of members and to make it a feature in musical circles.

It will embrace an orchestra, a band,

singers and constant practice will be carried on to bring all departments up to a high standard.

Officers were elected yesterday as follows: J. H. Nordly, president; F. Engberg, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Svart, musical director. The regular meetings will be held monthly, and a general meeting of course, to support the party and the local republican.

I have attended a great many conventions

and have been much in experience that

where there is a man of ability and reputation, he is prominently before the convention and the public, and disdains to be a mere name and organization a union. They were not lovers of chin music and they did not organize, as might be supposed at the time, for political purposes, but they formed the Scandinavian Union.

It is intended to increase the membership to forty or fifty,

in fact the society sees its way

to a large number of members and to make it a feature in musical circles.

It will embrace an orchestra, a band,

singers and constant practice will be carried on to bring all departments up to a high standard.

Officers were elected yesterday as follows: J. H. Nordly, president; F. Engberg, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Svart, musical director. The regular meetings will be held monthly, and a general meeting of course, to support the party and the local republican.

I have attended a great many conventions

and have been much in experience that

where there is a man of ability and reputation, he is prominently before the convention and the public, and disdains to be a mere name and organization a union. They were not lovers of chin music and they did not organize, as might be supposed at the time, for political purposes, but they formed the Scandinavian Union.

It is intended to increase the membership to forty or fifty,

in fact the society sees its way

to a large number of members and to make it a feature in musical circles.

It will embrace an orchestra, a band,

singers and constant practice will be carried on to bring all departments up to a high standard.

Officers were elected yesterday as follows: J. H. Nordly, president; F. Engberg, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Svart, musical director. The regular meetings will be held monthly, and a general meeting of course, to support the party and the local republican.

I have attended a great many conventions

and have been much in experience that

where there is a man of ability and reputation, he is prominently before the convention and the public, and disdains to be a mere name and organization a union. They were not lovers of chin music and they did not organize, as might be supposed at the time, for political purposes, but they formed the Scandinavian Union.

It is intended to increase the membership to forty or fifty,

in fact the society sees its way

to a large number of members and to make it a feature in musical circles.

It will embrace an orchestra, a band,

singers and constant practice will be carried on to bring all departments up to a high standard.

Officers were elected yesterday as follows: J. H. Nordly, president; F. Engberg, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Svart, musical director. The regular meetings will be held monthly, and a general meeting of course, to support the party and the local republican.

I have attended a great many conventions

and have been much in experience that

where there is a man of ability and reputation, he is prominently before the convention and the public, and disdains to be a mere name and organization a union. They were not lovers of chin music and they did not organize, as might be supposed at the time, for political purposes, but they formed the Scandinavian Union.

It is intended to increase the membership to forty or fifty,

in fact the society sees its way

to a large number of members and to make it a feature in musical circles.

It will embrace an orchestra, a band,

singers and constant practice will be carried on to bring all departments up to a high standard.

Officers were elected yesterday as follows: J. H. Nordly, president; F. Engberg, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Svart, musical director. The regular meetings will be held monthly, and a general meeting of course, to support the party and the local republican.

I have attended a great many conventions

and have been much in experience that

where there is a man of ability and reputation, he is prominently before the convention and the public, and disdains to be a mere name and organization a union. They were not lovers of chin music and they did not organize, as might be supposed at the time, for political purposes, but they formed the Scandinavian Union.

It is intended to increase the membership to forty or fifty,

in fact the society sees its way

to a large number of members and to make it a feature in musical circles.

It will embrace an orchestra, a band,

singers and constant practice will be carried on to bring all departments up to a high standard.

Officers were elected yesterday as follows: J. H. Nordly, president; F. Engberg, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Svart, musical director. The regular meetings will be held monthly, and a general meeting of course, to support the party and the local republican.

I have attended a great many conventions

and have been much in experience that

where there is a man of ability and reputation, he is prominently before the convention and the public, and disdains to be a mere name and organization a union. They were not lovers of chin music and they did not organize, as might be supposed at the time, for political purposes, but they formed the Scandinavian Union.

It is intended to increase the membership to forty or fifty,

in fact the society sees its way

to a large number of members and to make it a feature in musical circles.

It will embrace an orchestra, a band,

singers and constant practice will be carried on to bring all departments up to a high standard.

Officers were elected yesterday as follows: J. H. Nordly, president; F. Engberg, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Svart, musical director. The regular meetings will be held monthly, and a general meeting of course, to support the party and the local republican.

I have attended a great many conventions

and have been much in experience that

where there is a man of ability and reputation, he is prominently before the convention and the public, and disdains to be a mere name and organization a union. They were not lovers of chin music and they did not organize, as might be supposed at the time, for political purposes, but they formed the Scandinavian Union.

It is intended to increase the membership to forty or fifty,

in fact the society sees its way

to a large number of members and to make it a feature in musical circles.

It will embrace an orchestra, a band,

singers and constant practice will be carried on to bring all departments up to a high standard.

Officers were elected yesterday as follows: J. H. Nordly, president; F. Engberg, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Svart, musical director. The regular meetings will be held monthly, and a general meeting of course, to support the party and the local republican.

I have attended a great many conventions

and have been much in experience that

where there is a man of ability and reputation, he is prominently before the convention and the public, and disdains to be a mere name and organization a union. They were not lovers of chin music and they did not organize, as might be supposed at the time, for political purposes, but they formed the Scandinavian Union.

It is intended

ONE WEEK LONGER!

OUR GREAT SACRIFICE SALE

WILL BE CONTINUED. WE MUST REDUCE OUR STOCK.

THIS WEEK OVERCOATS, HALF PRICE. All Wool Underwear at actual cost. Our entire line of Business and Dress Suits at cost. All our Odd Suits at half price. Pants at unheard-of prices.

MOTHERS--500 Children's Suits at manufacturer's cost. 150 pairs Boys' Shoes at $1.25, worth $2 and $2.50. 200 Boys' Suits at manufacturer's cost. All Furnishing Goods, Shoes and Neckwear at first cost.

M. S. BURROWS & CO.

WORLD OF COMMERCE.

Wheat Is Very Dull on Change; But Little Trading Done.

Prices of Grain and Stocks; Chicago Wheat Gossip; Close.

The market was firm today but quiet. The opening was 5¢ above Saturday's close, but under selling dropped off to a better demand advanced values at the close to best prices of the day, 5¢ above the opening. The close was quite strong.

Cash No. 1 hard closed at 77¢ nominal. No. 1 mchurn closed at 75¢ nominal. No. 2 northern closed at 71 nominal. May opened at $1.45, declined to 80¢, strengthened and settled up to $1.45, which was bid at the close.

THE DAY'S MOVEMENT.

Cars on track: Wheat, 24, corn 13, oats 2. Receipts: Wheat, 3612 bu; corn, 107,000 bu; oats, 20,295 bu. Shipments: Wheat, 1,000 bu; corn, 1,000 bu. Inspectors: Wheat, 5 cars, 1 car, oats, 7 cars; total 13 cars. Minneapolis reported 300 cars against 204 last Monday. Receipts there: Wheat, 111,000 bu; corn, 1200. Shipments: Flour, 17,715 bbls; wheat 13,440 bu; corn, 7,580 bu.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. T. B. Hoover left today for a long visit to the South and East.

Miss Magee, lately of this city, has been promoted to a $600 clerical position in the postoffice department at Washington.

The number of the new Swedish "Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst. It will have a large circulation, with a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of the new Swedish

"Duluth Post," will be published on the 13th inst.

It will have a large bearing in its title the inscription "Liberty."

The editor is Mr. L. M. Denzil.

A smart shower of sleet fell here for about half an hour last evening.

Five drunks were variously disposed of at the police court this morning. Most of them were left in jail for a few days gentle reprimand on the streets.

Schillings orchestra concert at Turner hall last night was rather slimly attended.

This however did not detract from the enthusiasm of the performers.

The first number of

EVENING HERALD.

ELIOT LORD, Publisher.

PRICE, THREE CENTS—Subscription Rates:
Daily, by mail, per three months.....$7.00
Daily, by mail, per annum.....70.
Daily, by carrier, per week.....12.
IN THE CITY.

Entered at the post office at Duluth, Minn., as second-class mail matter.

The Washington office of The Herald is at 141 New York Avenue, N. W., where the correspondent will welcome visitors from the Northwest.

FOR JUSTICE.

Never in the experience or knowledge of the editor of The Herald has a meager attack been made upon a citizen of any city than was made in The Duluth News of yesterday upon the republican candidate for mayor, M. O. Hall, in its article headed "It Cost Hall Fifty Dollars," which is reproduced with fitting replies in another column. The same change in substance was submitted in general terms to the editor of The Herald more than a week ago, but the promised substantiation was not attempted, although The Herald editor offered unhesitatingly to withdraw all support of The Herald from M. O. Hall, if the charge was substantiated, and to declare publicly why he did so.

Now at the eleventh hour, within a day of the appointed election, this charge is sprung upon Mr. Hall, when he has no sufficient opportunity to combat or refute it. His sworn unqualified denial and corroborative testimony are given in this issue of The Herald, and if there is sufficient legal ground for a suit for libel, it will be brought against The News. The action was the meager still, because the published course of the republican city committee, so contrary to all precedent, appeared at first so gravely damaging to Mr. Hall's campaign and himself personally. We do not charge that this was a deliberate plot to ruin personally and politically a man of well-known standing, the cashier of a leading city bank, but we do say, reluctantly, that the patent thoughtlessness or recklessness of the course adopted would have that effect, whether intended or not unless it was promptly and thoroughly counteracted.

This is the course by which it is hoped to elect the independent candidate, Mr. M. J. Davis, and we trust sincerely for the credit of Duluth that it will prove to be a ignominious failure. All fair-minded readers of The Herald will bear just witness to the conservative and calm temper of The Herald in this deplorable and super-heated campaign. We have said no word impugning the character of the independent candidate or questioning the motives of the intelligent support given him, outside of the notoriously biased action of those who have deserted Mr. Hall chiefly on the score of his public-spirited action in the matter of the police testimonial fund. Mr. M. J. Davis, as The Herald has shown from the books of the treasurer, T. W. Hoopes, and from its printed list, was also a subscriber to this fund, to his lasting credit, but this fact has been wilfully suppressed in the campaign discrimination against Mr. Hall among unreasoning or blinded laborers.

We have not seen reason to support Mr. M. J. Davis, the independent candidate against Mr. Hall, but we have quarreled with no man's independent judgment. We object to him first because he was not willing to await the determination of the republican party convention before announcing himself as a candidate, though he must have known that such action would tend inevitably to distract and divide the party. We object to him secondly as an apparent bolter from the convention, though we are not sure of his responsibility for the use of his name there. We object to him thirdly because we do not consider him qualified to discharge the duties of the first executive office in the city with credit to himself or the city. He is a man of extremely limited executive training or experience, and so imperfectly educated that in his notice to The Herald of his acceptance of his nomination by the alleged "labor" party, he wrote literally as follows: "Please don't forget that I Excepted the Nomination for Mayor Last Thursday night. M. J. Davis." His course in the council, as alderman, has not warranted our confidence. He has shown himself irresolute, lamentably dependent and lacking in progressive public spirit. The mayor under our present charter may be little more than a shackled figurehead, but The Herald wants, at least, a creditable figurehead and not a mere proxy for E. G. Swanstrom.

The signatures, hastily gathered, of some of the really representative republicans of Duluth, to a formal denunciation of the ill-judged, unauthorized and incompetent action of the city republican committee in attempting to "remove" the republican convention candidate, show what the stand of the party really is at this juncture. We have not questioned and do not question the integrity of the committee, but it is clearly wholly lacking in judgment and acquaintance with its powers and duties. The chairman, H. C. Holm, is the brother of the son-in-law of E. G. Swanstrom, and the other members of the committee are his appointees. They certainly cannot be counted among the well known and influential republicans of this city. If Mr. Swanstrom did not urge or influence their action by biased representations, he is not entitled to the credit which is commonly given him. One thing is certain, their action has aroused a just sympathy for Mr. Hall, which is stirring the whole city.

Mr. P. A. Burdick has now commenced the third and last week of his labors in the cause of temperance. The interest in his meetings has been constantly increased and Temple Opera is crowded nightly. Mr. Burdick is in many respects a remarkable man. There is nothing sensational in his discourses, but he has the happy faculty of interesting the people by dressing in garb the warden facts, and interspersing them with pleasant and pleasing anecdotes. On the subject of temperance Mr. Burdick speaks from experience. Like John B. Gough, he has been "through the mill" and knows whereof he speaks. He is a gifted and fluent talker and those who have heard him for six or more nights in succession say that he never repeats himself or relates the same story twice. Wherever he has been his success has been marked, and he is probably the greatest temperance orator since Gough. He has done a great amount of good in this city and has awakened an interest in the work that is astonishing. His interests all classes of people, and is never tiresome or tedious. This will be the last week we shall have him with us, and let no one miss the opportunity of hearing at least once this noble and gifted man.

M. J. Davis, alderman from the Fourth ward, is a member of the city committee on saloon licenses. He has been such a constant to all precedent, appeared at first so gravely damaging to Mr. Hall's campaign and himself personally. We do not charge that this was a deliberate plot to ruin personally and politically a man of well-known standing, the cashier of a leading city bank, but we do say, reluctantly, that the patent thoughtlessness or recklessness of the course adopted would have that effect, whether intended or not unless it was promptly and thoroughly counteracted.

This is the course by which it is hoped to elect the independent candidate, Mr. M. J. Davis, and we trust sincerely for the credit of Duluth that it will prove to be a ignominious failure. All fair-minded readers of The Herald will bear just witness to the conservative and calm temper of The Herald in this deplorable and super-heated campaign. We have said no word impugning the character of the independent candidate or questioning the motives of the intelligent support given him, outside of the notoriously biased action of those who have deserted Mr. Hall chiefly on the score of his public-spirited action in the matter of the police testimonial fund. Mr. M. J. Davis, as The Herald has shown from the books of the treasurer, T. W. Hoopes, and from its printed list, was also a subscriber to this fund, to his lasting credit, but this fact has been wilfully suppressed in the campaign discrimination against Mr. Hall among unreasoning or blinded laborers.

We have not seen reason to support Mr. M. J. Davis, the independent candidate against Mr. Hall, but we have quarreled with no man's independent judgment. We object to him first because he was not willing to await the determination of the republican party convention before announcing himself as a candidate, though he must have known that such action would tend inevitably to distract and divide the party. We object to him secondly as an apparent bolter from the convention, though we are not sure of his responsibility for the use of his name there. We object to him thirdly because we do not consider him qualified to discharge the duties of the first executive office in the city with credit to himself or the city. He is a man of extremely limited executive training or experience, and so imperfectly educated that in his notice to The Herald of his acceptance of his nomination by the alleged "labor" party, he wrote literally as follows: "Please don't forget that I Excepted the Nomination for Mayor Last Thursday night. M. J. Davis." His course in the council, as alderman, has not warranted our confidence. He has shown himself irresolute, lamentably dependent and lacking in progressive public spirit. The mayor under our present charter may be little more than a shackled figurehead, but The Herald wants, at least, a creditable figurehead and not a mere proxy for E. G. Swanstrom.

The signatures, hastily gathered, of some of the really representative republicans of Duluth, to a formal denunciation of the ill-judged, unauthorized and incompetent action of the city republican committee in attempting to "remove" the republican convention candidate, show what the stand of the party really is at this juncture. We have not questioned and do not question the integrity of the committee, but it is clearly wholly lacking in judgment and acquaintance

TALKS WITH MANY.

City Assessor Cooley: I have just been reading the report of the city controller of Minneapolis. It surprised me that the son-in-law of E. G. Swanstrom, and the other members of the committee are his appointees. They certainly cannot be counted among the well known and influential republicans of this city. If Mr. Swanstrom did not urge or influence their action by biased representations, he is not entitled to the credit which is commonly given him. One thing is certain, their action has aroused a just sympathy for Mr. Hall, which is stirring the whole city.

Mr. P. A. Burdick has now commenced the third and last week of his labors in the cause of temperance. The interest in his meetings has been constantly increased and Temple Opera is crowded nightly. Mr. Burdick is in many respects a remarkable man. There is nothing sensational in his discourses, but he has the happy faculty of interesting the people by dressing in garb the warden facts, and interspersing them with pleasant and pleasing anecdotes. On the subject of temperance Mr. Burdick speaks from experience. Like John B. Gough, he has been "through the mill" and knows whereof he speaks. He is a gifted and fluent talker and those who have heard him for six or more nights in succession say that he never repeats himself or relates the same story twice. Wherever he has been his success has been marked, and he is probably the greatest temperance orator since Gough. He has done a great amount of good in this city and has awakened an interest in the work that is astonishing. His interests all classes of people, and is never tiresome or tedious. This will be the last week we shall have him with us, and let no one miss the opportunity of hearing at least once this noble and gifted man.

M. J. Davis, alderman from the Fourth ward, is a member of the city committee on saloon licenses. He has been such a constant to all precedent, appeared at first so gravely damaging to Mr. Hall's campaign and himself personally. We do not charge that this was a deliberate plot to ruin personally and politically a man of well-known standing, the cashier of a leading city bank, but we do say, reluctantly, that the patent thoughtlessness or recklessness of the course adopted would have that effect, whether intended or not unless it was promptly and thoroughly counteracted.

This is the course by which it is hoped to elect the independent candidate, Mr. M. J. Davis, and we trust sincerely for the credit of Duluth that it will prove to be a ignominious failure. All fair-minded readers of The Herald will bear just witness to the conservative and calm temper of The Herald in this deplorable and super-heated campaign. We have said no word impugning the character of the independent candidate or questioning the motives of the intelligent support given him, outside of the notoriously biased action of those who have deserted Mr. Hall chiefly on the score of his public-spirited action in the matter of the police testimonial fund. Mr. M. J. Davis, as The Herald has shown from the books of the treasurer, T. W. Hoopes, and from its printed list, was also a subscriber to this fund, to his lasting credit, but this fact has been wilfully suppressed in the campaign discrimination against Mr. Hall among unreasoning or blinded laborers.

We have not seen reason to support Mr. M. J. Davis, the independent candidate against Mr. Hall, but we have quarreled with no man's independent judgment. We object to him first because he was not willing to await the determination of the republican party convention before announcing himself as a candidate, though he must have known that such action would tend inevitably to distract and divide the party. We object to him secondly as an apparent bolter from the convention, though we are not sure of his responsibility for the use of his name there. We object to him thirdly because we do not consider him qualified to discharge the duties of the first executive office in the city with credit to himself or the city. He is a man of extremely limited executive training or experience, and so imperfectly educated that in his notice to The Herald of his acceptance of his nomination by the alleged "labor" party, he wrote literally as follows: "Please don't forget that I Excepted the Nomination for Mayor Last Thursday night. M. J. Davis." His course in the council, as alderman, has not warranted our confidence. He has shown himself irresolute, lamentably dependent and lacking in progressive public spirit. The mayor under our present charter may be little more than a shackled figurehead, but The Herald wants, at least, a creditable figurehead and not a mere proxy for E. G. Swanstrom.

The signatures, hastily gathered, of some of the really representative republicans of Duluth, to a formal denunciation of the ill-judged, unauthorized and incompetent action of the city republican committee in attempting to "remove" the republican convention candidate, show what the stand of the party really is at this juncture. We have not questioned and do not question the integrity of the committee, but it is clearly wholly lacking in judgment and acquaintance

A MAN OF PUSH.

To the Editor of The Herald:

It is customary as well as very fashionable for the defeated party in all conventions to raise the cry of fraud, baffle, abuse upon the Republicans, and claim that there is no reason why we should not have a big premium. Minneapolis has a bonded debt of $6,465,000. Her limit of indebtedness is 10% over her population of 175,000 people is big isn't it? Our entire bonded debt is $1,000,000. Now, six million of debt for a city of only 175,000 people is big isn't it? Our entire bonded debt is $1,000,000. Now, six million of debt for a city of only 175,000 people is big isn't it?

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis bonds, or the bonds of any large city even though its credit is actually bad, should be for more than twice as much as the bonds of a small town.

Mr. COOLEY: I am not so sure. The good deal of difference between $750,000 and 45,000 people and $6,500,000 and 175,000 people.

A. BURDICK: Yes, there is one reason why Minneapolis

Minn. Historical Society

Cheap unimproved Lots, we have some below present value.
E. C. HOLLIDAY,
Hotel St. Louis (Bldg.)

DULUTH EVENING HERALD.

VOL. 7; NO. 261.

DULUTH, MINN., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1890.

PRICE THREE CENTS.

CHEAP ACRES! LAST EDITION.

Examine this List of Bargains. Immense Money in It.

51-14

40 Acres in Section 2 $20.00 Per Acre.
80 "	2	17.50 "
80 "	4	15.00 "
120 "	10	25.00 "
80 "	13	30.00 "
80 "	21	50.00 "
120 "	28	50.00 "
60 "	22	75.00 "
60 "	27	75.00 "
40 "	28	60.00 "
80 "	23	55.00 "
160 "	18	25.00 "

50-14.

SW 1-4 of NW 1-4, Sec. 18, $130 Per Acre.

We consider this the best bargain we have.

50-15.

PURCHASE MONEY MORTGAGES WANTED

ANY AMOUNT. CASHED AT ONCE.

Applications for loans wanted, particularly for $500, $700, $800, $1,000, $1,600 and $2,400. Money on hand. Easy terms.

STRYKER, MANLEY & BUCK,

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING.

PAY YOUR ELECTION BETS WITH THE

WORLD-REWARDED KNOX HATS,

EXCLUSIVE AGENTS.

The BIG DULUTH
WHOLESALE

FOR ENDION OWNERS.

A Bomb Out of a Clear Sky; Much Property Involved in Law Suit.

Endion Division Lands are Clouded by Deeds Filed
Today.

A Transcript of the Record in
The Case; Attorneys Talks.

Another Prentiss-like claim has risen, which attempts to cast a cloud over the title to a great share of Endion division property. It will probably prove to be a bugaboo as the Prentiss third division nightmare. The facts as far as known are as follows:

For more than a year past John D. Gill has been pouring over the recorded deeds in books A, B and C in the register's office, and also reliving his momentous search by occasional glances at the title papers of attorney volume. No title was known to him. Bill Gill's double was thus employed. He came and went, took down the many names and carefully replaced them, always worked in a corner by himself. It now appears that the brilliant young attorney has been lured to bear and has been stocking his magazine with an immense amount of legal ammunition.

Early in the fifties Charles Chester and Mary C. Chester lived and died in the "trooly room" of the East Clifton street. The California craze seized upon Charles Chester and he departed for the Pacific slope in 1858, giving to his wife Mary, a power of attorney to collect his accounts, sell his debts and arbitrate other matters and certain goods. During his absence Mary wound up her husband's business, selling, among other things, the following property to J. B. Culver for $1,000.

Lot 22 Lake avenue, Upper Duluth, Lots 38, 39, 47 and 49, East Clifton street, Lot 8, the East Superior street, Lots 51, 53, 57 and 59, and McGraw's street.

Drew street, Lots 71 and 73, Clark street, Lots 11, 13, 15, 17, 19, 21, 23, 25, 27, West Albert street, Lot 17, East Pick street, Loring street, Lots 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, East Caldwell street, Lot 6, East Greenwich street.

All of which were situated on the old point of Duluth, known as Portage; also the n^os of 14½ and the sⁿ 14½, n^os of sec. 23-50-11, signed "Charles Chester by Mary C. Chester, his attorney in fact."

The acreage passed by patent, signed by President Buchanan, to Charles Chester as assignee of a land warrant issued to Peter Wagner, a private soldier of the war, in 1863.

He sold the same to Mr. Tracy, who resold it to Mr. Tracy, Jr., in 1868.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

The acreage passed by patent, signed by President Buchanan, to Charles Chester as assignee of a land warrant issued to Peter Wagner, a private soldier of the war, in 1863.

He sold the same to Mr. Tracy, who resold it to Mr. Tracy, Jr., in 1868.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this earth) and the title was taken up by Mr. Tracy.

Finally he sold to South America without anyone knowing of the secret marriage. He remained away so long that his wife married him as dead, and citizens of Duluth, after searching for him, found him in Brazil.

Mr. Tracy, Jr., sold it to Mr. Tracy, who presented for filing an agreement to sell lands executed by Charles Chester and Anna Chester of Alameda county, California (Mary having shuffed off this

EVENING HERALD.

ELIOT LORD, Publisher.

PRICE, THREE CENTS—Subscription Rates:
Daily, by mail per year.....$7.00
Daily, by mail, per month.....2.75
Daily, by carrier, per week.....18

Entered at the postoffice at Duluth, Minn., as second-class mail matter.

The Washington office of The Herald is at New York Avenue, N. W., where the paper is kept on file and where The Herald correspondent will welcome visitors from the Northwest.

THE RESULT.

The campaign is over. Five republican aldermen out of seven are elected, a distinct gain in the council, which now stands seven republican, three democrat and one labor representative, with one vacancy to be filled in the place of Alderman Davis, the mayor-elect. This should ensure a good working united majority for the service of the city, and time will show whether this anticipation has been realized.

The regular republican convention candidate, M. O. Hall, has been heavily defeated. In default of well-attested specific charges, The Herald accepted the formal conclusion of the convention and stood by the candidate whom it did not choose to the end. It would have done so, if it had known that Mr. Hall would receive less than a dozen votes in place of 212, for it recognized the force of his conclusion that his resignation in face of the call for specific charges would be held up as a confession of fear and guilt, which he could not make in justice to himself, and could not fairly be expected to make if innocent. The Herald stood, therefore, for the honest justice and fair play to the candidate-elect of the party convention, and was faithful to the party and the man of its formal choice in so doing. It has nothing to regret in its course, and would do the same again under like circumstances. It fully anticipated Mr. Hall's defeat from the first, but it preferred that the responsibility should rest with those who put him up intentionally to demoralize the party, and their deserted their own cause in common with others and worked openly for the independent candidate, the present mayor-elect.

This kind of political working is not the kind that suits The Herald, if it does the work, and the honest supporters of Mr. Davis will not justify it. We do not say that Mr. Hall would have been elected in a perfectly fair campaign, but we do say that patent trickery, misrepresentation and slander were unscrupulously used to knock him out completely, both politically and personally. In revolt at this course, The Herald, in connection with a few stalwart friends of Mr. Hall, stoutly protested and sought the judgment of representative republicans upon the illegal and unwarrantable course of the city republican committee. The list of representative names, hastily gathered, was not put up by workers for Shaw as has been falsely charged, but for nine-tenths at least was obtained by Mr. W. H. Stowell, the president of the Manufacturers Bank, and Mr. O. Stenson, both stalwart republicans and unquestionably loyal supporters of Mr. Hall, as could have been learned on the briefest honest inquiry.

The Herald does not propose, however, to take over the past campaign work, nor to waste any time in useless discussion. The campaign is at an end so far as it is concerned, and it accepts the result, as determined at the polls, and honestly hopes that it will be satisfactory to our growing city, when the qualifications of the mayor-elect are proved by trial. What is known as the labor party was obviously nearly solid behind him, and many good republicans supported him as well, who are earnestly desirous of efficient and good executive administration in every branch. This without any impress of bigotry, harsh intolerance, or practical folly. The Herald wants as much as anybody, and will work steadily and faithfully to secure. If the mayor-elect will show himself independent, progressive, active in every good work in behalf of the city, firm for law and order, and for the right, and devoted to his executive duties, The Herald will gladly recognize such service and support it. If not, The Herald will mark his failure with unmitigated plainness, but it will keep him from treat his party fairly and decently. That is The Herald's stand today.

THE AUSTRALIAN BALLOT.

Duluth yesterday gave its first full trial to the new voting system, loosely called the Australian. We say the first full trial, because in the one election heretofore, that for park bonds, there was but one question and a very small vote. It proved a marked success. Not only has the system the advantages claimed of a secret and honest ballot, but it is a quick ballot as well. By it there is no doubt that precincts of 1000 voters could be won as easily as those of 600 under the old law. Yesterday in the first thirty minutes of voting at one precinct fifty-seven votes were cast, an average of 114 per hour. In the same precinct the continued voting for four hours rolled up a total of 500 ballots cast. No record like this could have been made under the old system.

Speed, too, is not denied to the casting of ballots. In the count there is a rapidity never before equaled, here at least. While frequently the judges of election have wrestled with the work all night and far into the next day, last night there was such ease in counting that in little over an hour after the closing of the polls. The Herald received its first official returns, and had it not been for one precious moment when there was slight dispute, its special edition announcing the result would have been on the streets two hours after the close of the polls. This quickness of counting is another strong check against fraud.

Regardless of political opinion or desire, the voters of Duluth are unanimous in their expressions of pleasure at the methods of the new voting system.

How The Herald did rust out over the delivery counter last night when its editor visited with full report of the returns began running to the press. A crowd of newsmen that filled the library room and blocked the doors down in sight, and has sold 500,000 tons, which will be its output next summer. The other mines have nearly all contrived the sale of iron to the mills. The Ashland charcoal furnace is turning out 105 tons of pig iron per day, and it is a matter of only a few months when the city may have several new iron plants. For The Herald with its successive editions at short intervals from morning till evening, and its circulation end got there in great shape.

It is a notable fact that the price of steel rails in England is now only a little above the price in the United States, furnishing a very substantial refutation of the free trade theory that the duty is invariably added to the price of any article. If steel rail manufacture in the United States had not been built up and sustained by a protective duty the English manufacturer would have had a grand field in which to demand and obtain prices far in excess of those which have actually prevailed under the practical working of the protective policy.

A sensation indeed is what The Herald makes public today. It appears to be a sensation, too, in more than three ways. Owners of 120 acres of Endion division property will now have a right on their hands that will at least give them the knowledge that one cannot be too sure of his title when purchasing.

SEEN AND HEARD.

An old gentleman to me yesterday: That gossipy scene of yours is interesting, I suppose, but I am not interested in it.

For a melody, this piece is wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice adversely adjudicated by the courts, and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

The Prentice claim has been twice

adversely adjudicated by the courts,

and apparently the parties are still at odds.

For a melodrama, this piece is

wonderfully effective. It is not strained or forced, and the words are smooth and musical. A number of such scenes have been seen in Duluth. Anyone who has ever seen a racing course and witnessed a swelling crowd of people on the grandstand, and the excitement and the plot is carried out in a thrilling manner. "A Dark Secret" is the first, and by far the most effective of the pieces.

THE INDIANS STARVING.

The Bois Forte Indians at Vermilion Lake are Starving.

A Bad Outlook for Reds Around the Large La Pointe Agency.

Two Hundred Votes Cast Out Yesterday by the Tellers.

"The Indians of the Bois Forte reservation are not only in straitened circumstances" said a man from Iowa yesterday, "but their sufferings have been intense. The poor wretches, lots of them were tackled by the grip. It was a new thing to them and they didn't know how to treat it. It knocked the medicine men clear off their feet." They had no food, no skins kind in their category and were at a loss what to do. Of course the severity and malignancy of the pest among them was no doubt attributable to cold and exposure.

"It is the worst. They are suffering for want of sufficient food and there have been actual cases of semi-starvation. This is evidenced by the fact that the birds have eaten out the nests under the eaves. Numerous birds are dying. Death from starvation would have occurred in several cases had not Indian Farmer McDonald gone ahead and provided for the Indians so do without an order from the agent Mr. Leahy will be up to the reservation on the 20th inst. to distribute the amount supplied. The more the much snow it is impossible for the Indians to get much game, and even that appears to be scarce this season."

For the same combination of affairs as just above, above exists at the Fond du Lac and Lac Court d'Oreles reservations.

Our neighbors in the prairies are more humane in their treatment of the Indians, and we could well learn a lesson from them in this respect. Bishop Whipple, when on his mission among the Indians, always the chief of the red man. He never spoke.

The Indian who goes to the reporter, and his side of the story is unknown.

The Lost Found.

R. L. Brown, Jr., a young attorney of the Second district, had a narrow experience yesterday. A horse started to run away on Superior street when Mr. Brown, with great presence of mind, seized the unruly animal, and prevailed on him to stop. In the struggle Mr. Brown lost his hat, which he spat upon and supposed they were forever gone. Speaking of his loss a few hours later he was astonished to have them handed to him by a solemn-looking individual standing by.

WHEN THEY QUAJIFY.

New Officers Will Take Their Places in March. The City Hall.

The new city aldermen will qualify the first Tuesday in March. A new alderman till Mayor Davis' half term in the Fourth ward, will have to be appointed by the new council.

That will be considerable, waiting out in the various departments in the city hall, no one seems to doubt. It is believed, however, that City Clerk Bullock will fill his position. The fact is Charlie is so used to the old men, they can't very well spare him. The public department will not doubt be the chief sufferers. That Chief Donan will go to the front again. It is universally expected that Capt. McLean will not be required to pack his traps; he is by far the oldest man on the force and has always shown the greatest bravery, especially last summer.

CITY BRIEFS.

The following variations in temperature were recorded at the Pioneer Fuel company's office, Hotel St. Louis: 12 m., 28; 1 p.m., 40; 6 p.m., 40; 10 p.m., 27; 12 m., 38; 9 a.m., 6; 12 m., 11; Maximum, 44; minimum, 6; daily range, 38.

Only two trunks were corralled last night, despite the fact that yesterday was warm and cool. C. Nickelson and Thos. Jones were the offenders, and both were committed.

C. Nickelson paid a jolly little morning for his offense, on the sidewalks.

Mrs. Burke, the well known city hall janstress, handed over five ten cent cigars to Colby Smith, the result of the short time she has been here.

The street gang was utilized this morning to tear down the polling booths, carry off the fallen and wipe away all traces of yesterday's conflict.

The cold wave signal flag is still displayed from the flagstaff on the weather office.

Philip Westway, acting street commissioner, has carried out his program with a vengeance. The street gang was despatched as described in the Herald last week. He has purchased six cutlasses consisting of cap, coat, pants, socks and lumberman's boots of which all articles are branded as property of the city.

Arrived at Court.

There was a time when a man who had circled the globe was a nine days' wonder, and if dim-witted managers had ever heard of the travel, the individual would have been entitled to a pension. Now such a voyage is so common that we have ceased to regard the world's circumference of 25,000 miles as anything large. But there can be no other way than another way—the difficulty and expense of overcoming it. The Burlington system of railroads has 7000 miles of track. Do you realize what a lot of rails it would take to lay across the Highways of a single line? How much money that would cost? How many great cities and thriving towns you would pass in traveling that distance? Buy a ticket over the newest railroad in the country and investigate. For information more in detail, call on any of the Burlington agents, or those of connecting lines, or write to W. J. C. Kenyon, Gen. Pass Agent, B. & N. R. R., St. Paul, Minn.

Unitarian literature furnished free upon application at Room D, Hunter block.

"The Battles and Leaders of the Civil War" bound in appropriate finishings at The Herald binder.

THE RESULT.

Full Returns of the Election of Yesterday From All Precincts.

(From last night's eight o'clock edition.)

The following is the result of the canvass of votes by the judges in the various wards:

FIRST WARD.

For Mayor—

M. O. Hall, rep. 35

J. K. Shaw, dem. 102

M. J. Davis, ind. 107

For Aldermen—

John H. Hall, rep. 104

Chas. A. Beattie, rep. 103

T. J. Timlin, dem. 113

Alfred E. Johnson, dem. 104

F. W. Wiesland, ind. 104

Total votes cast 409

SECOND WARD.

For Mayor—

M. O. Hall, rep. 27

J. K. Shaw, dem. 102

M. J. Davis, ind. 107

For Aldermen—

W. P. T. St. John, rep. 62

A. H. Thompson, ind. 5

B. F. Howard. 5

Total votes cast 250

THIRD WARD.

For Mayor—

1st pre-2d prec. 2d prec. 3d prec.

M. O. Hall, rep. 54 23 14

J. K. Shaw, dem. 102

M. J. Davis, ind. 107

For Aldermen—

Chas. A. Beattie, rep. 104

T. J. Timlin, dem. 113

Alfred E. Johnson, dem. 104

F. W. Wiesland, ind. 104

Total votes cast 350

FOURTH WARD.

For Mayor—

1st pre-2d prec. 2d prec. 3d prec.

M. O. Hall, rep. 54 23 14

J. K. Shaw, dem. 102

M. J. Davis, ind. 107

For Aldermen—

Chas. A. Beattie, rep. 104

Robert Loudon, dem. 245

G. O. Nelson, rep. 161

Total votes cast 350

FIFTH WARD.

For Mayor—

1st pre-2d prec. 2d prec. 3d prec.

M. O. Hall, rep. 104 65 64

J. K. Shaw, dem. 214 195

M. J. Davis, ind. 231

For Aldermen—

Chas. A. Beattie, rep. 104

G. O. Nelson, rep. 176

T. J. Timlin, dem. 241

F. W. Wiesland, ind. 181

Total votes cast 381

SIXTH WARD.

For Mayor—

M. O. Hall, rep. 104

J. K. Shaw, dem. 214

M. J. Davis, ind. 231

For Aldermen—

Chas. A. Beattie, rep. 104

G. O. Nelson, rep. 176

T. J. Timlin, dem. 241

F. W. Wiesland, ind. 181

Total votes cast 381

SEVENTH WARD.

For Mayor—

M. O. Hall, rep. 104

J. K. Shaw, dem. 214

M. J. Davis, ind. 231

For Aldermen—

Chas. A. Beattie, rep. 104

G. O. Nelson, rep. 176

T. J. Timlin, dem. 241

F. W. Wiesland, ind. 181

Total votes cast 381

EIGHTH WARD.

For Mayor—

M. O. Hall, rep. 104

J. K. Shaw, dem. 214

M. J. Davis, ind. 231

For Aldermen—

Chas. A. Beattie, rep. 104

G. O. Nelson, rep. 176

T. J. Timlin, dem. 241

F. W. Wiesland, ind. 181

Total votes cast 381

NINTH WARD.

For Mayor—

M. O. Hall, rep. 104

J. K. Shaw, dem. 214

M. J. Davis, ind. 231

For Aldermen—

Chas. A. Beattie, rep. 104

G. O. Nelson, rep. 176

T. J. Timlin, dem. 241

F. W. Wiesland, ind. 181

Total votes cast 381

TENTH WARD.

For Mayor—

M. O. Hall, rep. 104

J. K. Shaw, dem. 214

M. J. Davis, ind. 231

For Aldermen—

Chas. A. Beattie, rep. 104

G. O. Nelson, rep. 176

T. J. Timlin, dem. 241

F. W. Wiesland, ind. 181

Total votes cast 381

ELVING WARD.

For Mayor—

M. O. Hall, rep. 104

J. K. Shaw, dem. 214

M. J. Davis, ind. 231

For Aldermen—

Chas. A. Beattie, rep. 104

G. O. Nelson, rep. 176

T. J. Timlin, dem. 241

F. W. Wiesland, ind. 181

Total votes cast 381</

